

Contents

Preface to the English Edition ix

Introduction 1

Part 1

On Modern Ideology

- 1 Genesis, I 23
The Christian Beginnings: From the Outworldly Individual to the Individual-in-the-world
- 2 Genesis, II 60
The Political Category and the State from the Thirteenth Century Onward
  1. Introduction 60
  2. Thomas Aquinas and William of Ockham 62
  3. From Church Supremacy to Political Sovereignty 66
  4. Modern Natural Law 72
  5. The Equalitarian and Possessive Implications of Individualism 76
  6. Hobbes's Leviathan 81
  7. Rousseau's "Contrat social" 85
  8. The Declaration of the Rights of Man 92
  9. The Aftermath of the Revolution: Universitas Reborn 97

- 3 Genesis, III 104
The Emergence of the Economic Category: A Reminder
- 4 A National Variant, I 113
German Identity: Herder's Volk and Fichte's Nation
- 5 A National Variant, II 133
The German Idea of Liberty According to Troeltsch
- 6 The Totalitarian Disease: Individualism and Racism in
Adolf Hitler's Representations 149

Part 2

Comparison Made Radical: The Universal Viewed Anthropologically

- 7 Marcel Mauss: A Science in Process of Becoming 183
- 8 The Anthropological Community and Ideology 202
1. The Discipline in Its Relation to Ideologies 202
2. Where Equalitarianism Is Not in Place 223
- 9 On Value, Modern and Nonmodern 234

Works Cited 269

Glossary 279

Author Index 281