

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgments	viii
Introduction: Marxism, Neo-Marxism, and U.S. Sociology by Rhonda F. Levine and Jerry Lembcke	1
1 Crisis and Vitalization: An Interpretive Essay on Marxist Theory by Albert Szymanski	13
2 New Classes and Old Theories: The Impasse of Contemporary Class Analysis by Peter Meiksins	37
3 Class and Class Capacities: A Problem of Organizational Efficacy by Jerry Lembcke	64
4 Bringing Classes Back In: State Theory and Theories of the State by Rhonda F. Levine	96
5 The Limits of the World-System Perspective by Alex Dupuy and Barry Truchil	117
6 Race, Ethnicity, and Class by James A. Geschwender	136
7 Recent Ideological Tendencies in Urban and Regional Research: Neo-Liberalism and Social Democracy by Richard Peet	161
8 Behind the Veil of Neutrality: Hegemony in the Academic Marketplace by Peter Seybold	175

9 Feminism: A Marxist Critique by Albert Szymanski	194
10 Thinking About Social Class: Structure, Organization, and Consciousness by Scott G. McNall	223
Selected Bibliography	247
Index	249
List of Contributors	255