

Contents

Introduction	1
1 Aesthetic Theory: From Adorno to Cultural History	20
2 Reading in History and in Theory	35
3 Mark Twain's Detective Fiction: From The Stolen White Elephant and The Double-Barrelled Detective Story to The Adventures of Pudd'nHead Wilson	50
4 Faulkner's Subversive Modernism: Light in August	64
5 Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man : Modernism and Democracy in American Literature	79
6 Three Days Before the Shooting : Modernism and Democracy in/and American Literature	98
7 Toni Morrison's Beloved : The Forgotten History of Slavery and Patriarchy	109
8 Toni Morrison's A Mercy : The Critique of Patriarchy and History's Lost Opportunities	135
Conclusion	151
Bibliography	159
Index	205