

Contents

|  |          |
|--|----------|
| List of Figures   | page vii |
| List of Contributors  | ix       |
| Preface   | xi       |
| Chronology, 1850–1865   | xiii     |
|    |          |
| Introduction   | I        |
| Teresa Zackodnik  |          |
|    |          |
| PART I BLACK PERSONHOOD AND CITIZENSHIP IN TRANSITION  |          |
| INTRODUCTION   | 19       |
| Teresa Zackodnik  |          |
|    |          |
| 1 Freedom's Accounts: The Semi-Citizenship Narrative   | 25       |
| Stephen Knadler   |          |
|    |          |
| 2 Conduct Discourse, Slave Narratives, and BlackMale Self-Fashioning on the Eve of the Civil War | 48       |
| Erica L. Ball   |          |
|    |          |
| 3 Picturing Black Authorship with and against Stowe's Lens   | 68       |
| Michael A. Chaney   |          |
|    |          |
| 4 African American Periodicals and the Transition toVisual Intercourse                           | 91       |
| Autumn Womack   |          |
|    |          |
| PART II GENERIC TRANSITIONS AND TEXTUAL CIRCULATION  |          |
| INTRODUCTION   | 119      |
| Teresa Zackodnik  |          |

|  |   |     |
|--|---|-----|
| 5  | Overhearing the African American Novel, 1850–1865Hollis Robbins and Mark Sussman                   | 123 |
| 6  | Black Romanticism and the Lyric as the Medium ofthe ConspiracyMatt Sandler                     | 149 |
| 7  | Black Newspapers, Novels, and the Racial Geographiesof TransnationalismBenjamin Fagan          | 171 |
| 8  | Creoles of Color, Poetry, and the Periodic Press inUnion-Occupied New OrleansJennifer Gipson   | 191 |
| 9  | The Haitian and American Revolutions and Black HistoricalWriting at Mid-CenturyStephen G. Hall | 217 |
| PART III BLACK GEOGRAPHIES IN TRANSITION |   |     |
|  | INTRODUCTIONTeresa Zackodnik   | 243 |
| 10                                       | Freedom to MoveJanaka Bowman Lewis   | 247 |
| 11                                       | Black Activism, Print Culture, and Literature in Canada,1850–1865Winfried Siemerling           | 271 |
| 12                                       | Antislavery Activist Networks and Transatlantic TextsBarbara McCaskill                             | 307 |
| 13                                       | Haiti as Diasporic Crossroads in Transnational AfricanAmerican WritingMarlene L. Daut          | 331 |
|  | Bibliography   | 352 |
|  | Index  | 384 |