

CONTENTS

Introduction: Social and Historical Presentation Pablo Baisotti	1
SECTION I
Early Representations of Violence in Latin American Literature	49
1 "Procuró sosegar y pacificar los indios": Colonial Violence in Latin America M. Carmen Gómez-Galisteo	51
2 Discursive Territories and Epistemic Violence in the Andean Colonial Indigenous Literature Nicolás Beauclair	64
3 After Ercilla: Violence and Militarism in the Colonial Epic (1569–1610) Javier de Navascués	74
4 Women and War in the Colonial Spanish American Epic: Gendered Boundaries and Erotic Conquest Sarissa Carneiro	88
5 Spaces of Violence in Vice-royal Chronicles: About Inca and Mexica-Tenochca Narrative Tradition Clementina Battcock and Jhonnatan Zavala	102
SECTION II
Ideological Violence in Latin American Literature	113
6 Honor Killing in 20th-Century Latin American Fiction Jay Corwin	115

7	Frantz Fanon in his Third World: Violence and Decolonization Marcelo Sanhueza	123
8	Inscriptions and Configurations of Violence: Italian Immigration in Argentina Fernanda Elisa Bravo Herrera	147
9	History, Violence and Fiction in Alejo Carpentier's Novel Reasons of State Rodica Grigore	166
10	Marxist-Leninist Anti-Capitalist Success: Muted Violence in Augustin Yañez's Edge of the Storm , Juan Rulfo's Pedro Paramo , and Sergio Galindo's Precipice Nancy Ann Watanabe	177
11	Martín Fierro as an Integral Part of the Peronist Identity Pablo Baisotti	190
12	Postcolonial Violence and Indigeneity in the testimonio : Andean Lives. Gregorio Condori Mamani and Asunta Quispe Huamán Ahmed Correa and Ignacio López-Calvo	212
SECTION III
Popular Violence and Dictatorships in Latin American Literature		229
13	Remembering Violence: The Narrative of '68 in Mexico Stefano Tedeschi	231
14	Dulce patria , a Collection of Poems About the Chilean Dictatorship Horacio Gutiérrez	253
15	Pain is Measured and Detailed: Representations of Pain and Guilt in the Works of Alejandro Zambra and Carlos Gamerro Macarena Areco	266
16	From Nunca más to Ni una menos : Testimony and Fiction in Contemporary Argentine Narrative Victoria García	276
17	Rodolfo Walsh and Cuba: Commitment and Militancy in the Shared Origins of Latin American Testimonio and Third Cinema Alejandro Pedregal	290
18	Violence and Silence in the Feminine Narrative on the Last Civic-Military Dictatorship in Argentina: Neither Tricks of the Weak Nor Resilience Marcela Crespo Buiturón	305

19	Representations of Violence and Peace in Contemporary Central American Narrative Werner Mackenbach	317
20	Counting and Recounting Stories and Bodies: Alfredo Molano on Violence and Morality Alejandro Sánchez Lopera	342
21	Violence and Responsibility: Ingrid Betancourt and No Silence That Does Not End Jeffrey Cedeño Mark	357
SECTION IV
New Forms of Violence in Latin American Literature		363
22	Sons Without a Homeland: Young Migrants in Contemporary Literature Elena Ritondale	365
23	Femicide in Contemporary Fantastic Literature: Solange Rodríguez Pape, Mónica Ojeda and Denise Phé Funchal Emanuela Jossa	380
24	Cien botellas en una pared and Blanco nocturno : The Feminization and Queering of Representations of Violence in Latin American Novels of the [early] 21st Century Mariana Romo-Carmona	397
25	Gender-Based Violence in Latin-American Neo Crime Fiction Literature: The Foreign Girls by Sergio Olguín Fabián G. Mossello	410
26	Labor Metamorphosis and Violence Against Women in Sergio Chejfec's The Dark Matías Beverinotti	421
27	Skin-Deep: A Psycho-Ontological Analysis of Violence in Sergio Bizzio's Rabia Alexander Torres	434
28	Representations of Violence in Mexico's Theater Hugo Salcedo Larios	446
29	Post-apocalyptic Violence in 21st-Century Mexican Fiction Aurelio Iván Guerra and Gabriel Osuna Osuna	464
30	"The past is forever unpredictable": Aesthetic and Political Projections in Contemporary Bolivian Narrative Magdalena González Almada	479

Contents

31	Literary Discourse and Representations of Violence: Spaces and Communities in Argentine Narrative of the 21st Century Liliana Tozzi	495
32	Three Poems / Tres Poemas Jesús J. Barquet	513
	List of Contributors	519
	Index	526