

Table of Contents

The Security and Insecurity of Enterprises: Constructing and Negotiating Dangers, Hazards, and Threats in Business History Mark Jakob & Nina Kleinöder	9
Weak States, Strong Businesses? The History of Private Security Firms in Twentieth-Century Germany Marcus Böick	27
Food and Supply Security in the first Phase of Globalisation: the Role of Producers, Consumers, and the State in the German Empire Christian Kleinschmidt	51
Between Entrepreneurial Risk-Taking and Reason of State: Export Credit Insurance in Germany and Britain during the Interwar Period Mark Jakob	71
Multinationals' Need for State Protection: the Creation of the Swiss Investment Risk Guarantee in the 1960s Sabine Pitteloud	111
The Management of Foreign Direct Investment Risk by two Norwegian Firms in the 1960s and 1970s Kristin Stanwick Bårnås	135
Security in a Globalizing World: the Debate on Foreign Capital in West Germany in the 1970s Christian Marx	157
Security of Supply: West Germany and the Global Markets for Base Metals, 1965–80 Ole Sparenberg	191

Performing Diligence: Nuclear Labour, Reactor Safety, and Public Relations in the West German Nuclear Industry in the 1980s	229
Sascha Brünig
The Threat of Insolvency: Czech Enterprises Searching for Financial Security in the Early 1990s	253
Eva Schäffler
Author information	279