

Contents

1. Introduction	11
1.1 Liturgy and Pontificals: The State of Research	13
1.2 Parameters of the Book	20
2. Liturgy and Medieval Society	29
2.1 Liturgy and the Clergy	29
2.1.1 Liturgy in Clerical Education	30
2.1.2 Liturgy as Service to the Community: Community Spirit and Ritual Theory	33
2.1.3 Liturgy as an Agent of Clerical Communal Commemoration and Narrative	39
2.2 Liturgy and the Laity	45
2.2.1 Liturgy and the Lay Nobility	46
2.2.2 Liturgy and the Common People	55
3. The Social and Political Implications of Liturgical Performances: Case Studies	74
3.1 Liturgy as a Vehicle for Shaping the Identity of Communities	75
3.1.1 Identity and Its Implications	75
3.1.2 Liturgy, Identity, and Politics: Perceptions of and Reactions to Liturgical Differences	77
3.1.3 Defending Local Liturgy, Defending Identity? An Incident in Worms in 1052	86
3.1.4 Changing Rituals, Changing Identities and Politics? The Implications of Liturgical Alterations	92
3.2 Searching for Correctness? Discourses about Liturgy	105
3.2.1 Episcopal Liturgical Interest and Debates about Liturgy	105
3.2.2 Escalations of Liturgical Debates and Their Consequences	113
4. Liturgical Texts between Individuality and Uniformity: The Pontificals in the Church Province of Reims	122
4.1 The Witnesses of the Episcopal Liturgy: The Nature of Episcopal Liturgical Handbooks	122
4.2 Correction, Erasure, and Addition: The Treatment of Episcopal Liturgical Books	127
4.3 Places of Production and Storage of Pontificals	130
4.4 Texts between Supra-Regional Influences and Local Traditions: The Diverse Influences on the Episcopal Liturgical Handbooks’ Contents	133

4.4.1	Supra-Regional Influences and Impractical Pontificals: The PRG Tradition	133
4.4.2	The Importance of Regional Liturgical Traditions for Episcopal Liturgical Codifications	141
4.5	The Exchange of Pontificals and the Dissemination of Supra-Regional Traditions	147
4.6	The Use and the Addressees of Episcopal Liturgical Handbooks	151
5.	Regional Context: The Dioceses of Cambrai and Arras in the Church Province of Reims	155
5.1	The Political Relevance of the Region of Reims from the Tenth to the Twelfth Centuries	157
5.1.1	The Political Patterns within the Region of Reims	157
5.1.2	The Political Importance of the Region of Reims to the Empire	162
5.2	The Ideological and Intellectual Significance of the Province of Reims	167
5.2.1	The Ideological Significance as the Coronation Site of the French Kings	167
5.2.2	The Church Province as an Intellectual Center	172
5.2.2.1	Monastic Institutions	172
5.2.2.2	Cathedral Schools	176
6.	Liturgical Codification and Society: The Episcopal Handbooks' Multiple Objectives	184
6.1	Tracing Political and Social Developments through Liturgy: The Blessing of War Banners in Twelfth-Century Northern France	184
6.1.1	The Tradition of Blessing War Banners in the Church Province of Reims	189
6.1.2	King Louis VI, His Bishops, and the Ritual from Arras	193
6.2.	Writing Liturgy, Shaping Society: The Ritual of Imperial Coronation in Eleventh-Century Cambrai-Arras	202
6.2.1	The Imperial Coronation: A Special Crowning Ritual	202
6.2.2	The Eleventh-Century Diocese of Cambrai-Arras and the Textual Witness to Its Episcopal Liturgy	212
6.2.3	Illustrating Ideological Statements in the Episcopal Liturgy: The Ordo for Imperial Coronation in Cologne 141	220
6.2.4	Contextualizing the Ordo for the Coronation of the Emperor in Cologne 141	228
6.3	The Bishop and His Diocese: The Ritual of Abbatial Ordination and Bishop Lambert of Arras (1093–1115)	238

6.3.1 The Occurrence of Written Professiones during Abbatial Ordination Rituals	240
6.3.2 Using the Liturgical Codification of Abbatial Ordination for Wielding Authority	248
7. Conclusion	261
Abbreviations	274
Appendix	276
Table: Pontificals of the Church Province of Reims from the Tenth to the Twelfth Centuries	276
Illustration	279
Bibliography	280
Manuscript Sources	280
Edited Primary Sources	282
Regesta and Manuscript Repertories	291
Secondary Works	292
Index	336
Index of Manuscripts	336
General Index	337