Contents

List of maps vii
Preface ix

1. SLAY THEM NOT LEST MY PEOPLE FORGET 1

The formative years. Victory of Christianity. The Christian Empire. The Apostolic See: first contacts. Gregory I and his successors. The Crusades. Innocent III. The immediate successors of Innocent III. The thirteenth century: the second half. Friars and theologians. The Babylonian captivity of the papacy. From Martin V to Calixtus III. The Renaissance popes

2. BETWEEN PROTECTION AND PERSECUTION 39

Origins of papal protection. Sicut Judeis. Expulsions and forced conversions. The ritual murder libel. Sicut Judeis and the libel. Effectiveness of protection. Desecration of the host. The Avignon papacy between protection and persecution. Renewal of Sicut Judeis. New protective Bulls. John of Capistrano. Contradictory policies. Nicholas V and his successors. The ritual murder libel in Trent. The establishment of the Spanish Inquisition and the expulsion of 1492. The protection of the remnant

3. CHILDREN OF THE MAIDSERVANT 94

Legal status. Theological servitude. Jurisdiction: lay and ecclesiastical. Jurisdictional conflicts. Claims and counterclaims. Overlapping jurisdiction in the fifteenth century. Jews in court. Religious freedom. Synagogues. Conversion of synagogues into churches. Curfew during Holy Week. Social discrimination and degradation. The badge. The Jewish quarter. Segregation and discrimination in the fifteenth century. Exclusion from public office and authority over Christians. Intermarriage and sexual intercourse

4. THOU SHALT NOT LEND UPON USURY TO THY BROTHER... 157

Slaves and slavery. Servants of the Jews. Slaves and servants at the close of the Middle Ages. Doctors and surgeons. The tithe. Trade in Church property. Interest and usury. Money-lenders. Retraining the banker. Conversion of usury to pious purposes. Total prohibition of usury. Renewed tolerance of Jewish banking. Contradictory policies. Nicholas of Cusa. The mendicant Orders. Monti di Pietà. Inconsistent conclusion

5. THE REMNANT SHALL BE SAVED (MISSION AND CONVERSION) 228

Conversion to Judaism. Judaizers and Jewish influence on Christians. Conversion to Christianity. The use of force. Coercion and inducements. Rights of converts. Baptism of children. Mission to the Jews in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries. Forced conversions in 1391 and after. Inconsistent policies in the fifteenth century. Renewed missionary effort in the sixteenth century. The casa dei catecumeni. Voluntary converts. Some well-known Jewish converts in Italy

6. POLEMICS AND DISPUTATIONS 287

Early Adversus Judaeos literature. St. Augustine. The High Middle Ages. Changing patterns. Papal intervention. The Talmud on trial. The disputation at Barcelona. Polemics and mission. From Pugio Fidei to Tortosa. The disputation at Tortosa. Polemical intensity in the fifteenth century. Italian Hebraists. The last Renaissance popes and Hebrew literature. Leo X and the Talmud. The last years of tolerance. The burning of the Talmud and the end of disputations

7. THE INQUISITION 343

The origins. Jewish converts and reversion to Judaism. Inquisition and professing Jews. Mass conversions. Southern France and Spain in the fourteenth century. Bernard Dupuy and Nicholas Eymerich. Magicians, sorcerers and others. Pons Feugeyron. Southern Italy in the fifteenth century. The converso problem in Spain. Discrimination against converts. The Spanish Inquisition. Thomas Torquemada. Purity of Blood. The Portuguese Inquisition. Paul III versus John III. Paul III's last stand and surrender

8. THE POPES' JEWS 402

A: Rome
Rights and charters. Legal status. Banking. Trades and professions. Taxes. The Jewish community
B: Italy
Privileges in the Papal State. Ancona and the March, Cesena and Bologna. Money-lending. Taxes and communal organization. Portuguese and Levantine merchants
C: France
Avignon and the Comtat Venaissin. Privileges. Conflicts between Christians and Jews

9. CONCLUSION 462

MAPS:
1. Europe and the Mediterranean facing p. 1
2. The Papal States in Italy following p. 402
3. Avignon, the Comtat Venaissin and Surroundings following p. 451