
Contents

H. Walter Schmitz
Introduction	7
1. Significs as a Starting Point of Research
Christian Thiel
Brouwer's Philosophical Language Research and the Concept of the Ortho-Language in German Constructivism	21
Dirk van Dalen
Brouwer's Dogma of Languageless Mathematics and its Role in his Writings	33
Erik Heijerman
The Validity of Mathematics as a Pseudo-Problem	45
Gerard Alberts
Signific Consultation - David van Dantzig's Dream of a Practical Significs	57
2. On the History of Significs
Klasien Horstman
Victoria Welby, a Moralistic Pragmatist!	79
L. J. M. Bergmans
Otto Friedrich Gruppe as a Precursor of the Significians	89
3. Significs Compared
Achim Eschbach
Charles W. Morris and Gerrit Mannoury - a Juxtaposition	107
Norman M. Martin
Significs and Logical Empiricism	121
Henk Visser
Significs in Linguistic Philosophy	133

Contents

4.	On the Topicality of Signific Methods for Analysis
	H. Walter Schmitz
	Empirical Methods of Signific Analysis of Meaning: Transformation and Exhaustion of Linguistic Acts	147
	Adriaan D. de Groot
	Signific Concept Analysis	161
	Fester L. Medendorp
	Rethinking Signific Issues	187
	Erik Heijerman
	Summary of the Final Discussion	197
	Index of Names	204