

Contents

List of Abbreviations	ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xvii
Introduction: In Search of Orientation	1
PART ONE
ORIENTATION: THE TWIN MODES OF CLASSICAL UNDERSTANDING
1 Out of the Central Moltenness: The Integrative Art of Dispositio	23
2 Aristotle, Burke, and the Turn from Narration	41
3 Cicero and Narration as the Art of Establishing Significance	57
4 Quintilian: Narration as the Heart of Rhetorical Thought	76
PART TWO
DISORIENTATION: THE DEMISE OF NARRATION
5 Narration's Move from Center to Periphery: An Overview	105
6 The Restriction of Narration: Crises in Early Rhetorical History	110
7 The Denial of Narration: Self Abstracted from Page	126
8 The Rejection of Narration: The Rise of List and Autonomous Logic	152

9	The Disappearance of Narration: The Fall of Story and Morality	176
10	The Loss of Narration: Further Consequences of Dimmed Vision	207
11	The Resilience of Narration: The Rhetoric of Relevance and the Relevance of Rhetoric	236

PART THREE

REORIENTATION: THE RETURN OF NARRATION AND *DIVISIO

12	Toward Rhetorical Wholeness: Personalizing the Fragments of Specialization	267
	Works Cited	278
	Name Index	287
	Subject Index	291