

CONTENTS

POETICS OF EXPRESSIVENESS: AN INTRODUCTION.	1
---	---

PART ONE. THEORY

Concepts towards a theory of literary competence.

Introductory remarks.	19
1. The problem of metalanguage. 2. Poetics and modelling.
1. Basic concepts of the poetics of expressiveness.	25
1. Text. 2. Theme. 3. Expressive devices. 4. Derivation. 5. "Subtraction" of Eds. 6. Dictionary of reality.
2. Elementary expressive devices.	51
1. CONCRETIZATION. 2. AUGMENTATION. 3. REPETITION. 4. DIVISION. 5. VARIATION. 6. CONTRAST. 7. PREPARATION. 8. COMBINATION. 9. CONCORD. 10. REDUCTION.
3. On VARIATION.	69
1. General remarks. 2. Organization of diversity. 3. Sources of diversity: qualitative. 4. Sources of diversity: quantitative. 5. Themes CONCRETIZED via VARIATION. 6. VARIATION and other EDs.
4. On PRESAGE.	99
1. Parameters of PRESAGE. 2. Examples of PRESAGE. 3. COMBINATIONS of PRESAGE with other EDs. 4. Themes CONCRETIZED via PRESAGE. 5. EDs bordering on PRES- AGE.

5. On RECOIL. 123
 1. RECOIL proper. 2. RECOIL MOVEMENT. 3. SUDDEN TURN. 4. SUDDEN TURNS: some varieties. 5. S-TURNS compounded with other EDs. 6. Themes CONCRETIZED via RECOIL.
6. On poetic worlds. 145
 1. The concept of "poetic world" (PW). 2. The PW of Molière. 3. The PW of Pushkin.

PART TWO. TWO APPLICATIONS

I Ex ungue leonem:

Leo Tolstoy's children's stories as an echo of his major works. (A study in thematic invariance).

- Introductory remarks 155
7. Deep structure. 159
 1. Tolstoy's thematic invariants. 2. Plot component: the five acts. 3. Spatial component: the two zones. 4. Actant component.
8. Surface structure. 199
 1. Plot: the 11 invariant episodes. 2. Spatial organization. 3. Surface characters. 4. Others aspects of surface structure.

II The Archpoet of Cologne's arch poetics: Deep and surface structures of his "Confession" in service of an ambivalent theme.

- Introductory remarks 255
9. Theme and deep design. 257
 1. Theme. 2. Deep design.
10. Deep structure. 273
 1. Constructions. 2. The plot nucleus. 3. Composition.

11. Surface structure.	289
1. Phase I: 'exaggerated self-flagellation'. 2. Phase II: 'defense of hedonism'. 3. Phase III: 'blasphemous praise of sin'. 4. Phase IV: 'attacks on piety'. 5. Phase V: 'hasty transfiguration'. 6. Phase VI: 'reconciliation of piety and zest for life'.
Appendix	305
Abbreviations	327
Bibliography	329
References	339
Glossary	345
Index	355