

Contents

Preface / ix

Acknowledgments / xi

Introduction / xiii

I. THE ROMANTIC TRADITION

1. Cultural Transcendence: The Task of the Romantics / 3
2. Romanticism, Science, and Gossip / 23
3. Romantic Historicism in Italy: Opera, Painting, Fiction / 31
4. Frederick the Great / 64
5. Browning and Romanticism / 80
6. An Explanation of "Realism" / 106
7. Victorian Counterculture / 113
8. Edgar Saltus and the Heroic Decadence / 131
9. Romanticism, Surrealism, Terra Nostra / 139

II. THE USES OF IDEOLOGIES

10. Philosophy and Art as Related and Unrelated Modes of Behavior / 149
11. Man's Use of Nature / 162
12. Two Ways of Using "Creativity" / 180
13. Truth in Art? Why Not? / 187

III. THEORY OF ART AND CRITICISM

- 14. Psychology and Literature / 199
- 15. Perceptual and Semiotic Discontinuity in Art / 219
- 16. "Literature": Disjunction and Redundancy / 235
- 17. Three Notions about Criticism / 244
- 18. The Problem of Interpretation / 256
- 19. Literature and Behavior / 274

Title and Name Index / 297

Subject Index / 303