

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	xxv
PART ONE: BACKGROUND	1
1. Geography and Climate	3
2. The Human Legacy	11
3. Early Modern Japan: An Overview	29
PART TWO: THE ERA OF PACIFICATION, 1570–1630	37
4. The Politics of Pacification	39
5. The Economics of Pacification	59
6. Culture and Pacification	80
PART THREE: THE TOKUGAWA HEYDAY, 1630–1710	101
7. The Politics of Order	105
8. Economic Growth and Change	140

9. The Blossoming of Political Thought	160
10. Aesthetics and the Rise of Ukiyo	184
11. Ecological Trends: The Period of Growth	223

PART FOUR: STRUGGLING TO STAND STILL,
1710–1790 233

12. Ecological Trends: The Period of Stasis (I)	235
13. Ecological Trends: The Period of Stasis (II)	260
14. Yoshimune and the Kyōhō Reform	280
15. The Politics of Stasis, 1751–1790	316
16. Thought and Society: The Eighteenth Century	348
17. The Later Years of Early Tokugawa Arts and Letters	378

PART FIVE: THE EROSION OF STABILITY,
1790–1850 397

18. Later Tokugawa Arts and Letters	401
19. Thought and Society, 1790–1850	428
20. The Best of Times, 1790–1825	465
21. The Worst of Times, 1825–1850	504

Epilogue: Breaking Up and Breaking Out,
1850–1870 540

Appendixes

A. Year Periods (Nengō), 1570–1868	553
B. Dates of Tokugawa Shogun	554
C. Early Modern Emperors Mentioned in the Text	555

Glossary of Japanese Terms	557
----------------------------	-----

Suggestions for Further Reading in English	567
--	-----

Index	579
-------	-----