

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acronyms and Abbreviations	xi
About the Authors	xiii
1. Out of the Ether: The Wireless World and New Histories of International Radio Broadcasting Simon J. Potter	1
2. Technologies of International Radio Broadcasting David Clayton	33
Case Study 2.1 Radio Amateurs and ‘DX-ing’ between the World Wars Rebecca Scales	53
Case Study 2.2 ‘Towers of Prestige’: Dutch Transmitters and Public Relations Vincent Kuitenbrouwer	62
3. Institutions, States, and International Broadcasting Nelson Ribeiro	70
Case Study 3.1 British Colonial Broadcasting in the 1940s David Clayton	93
Case Study 3.2 Media (and) Revolution: Western Broadcasting in Central and Eastern Europe after 1989 Friederike Kind-Kovács	98
4. Radio Wars: Histories of Cross-Border Radio Propaganda Vincent Kuitenbrouwer	104
Case Study 4.1 Interwar Radio Propaganda for Arabic-speaking Listeners Andrea L. Stanton	123
Case Study 4.2 News, Propaganda, and British and American International Broadcasting during the Second World War Simon J. Potter	128
5. Broadcasting as Internationalism Friederike Kind-Kovács	134
Case Study 5.1 International Broadcasting for a Pluri-Continental Nation? Portuguese Colonial Broadcasting Nelson Ribeiro	154

Case Study 5.2 The Song of the Trojan Horse: Radio Luxembourg and Allied Propaganda at the End of the Second World War Simon J. Potter	160
6. Programmes, Soft Power, and Public Diplomacy Simon J. Potter	167
Case Study 6.1 Dramatic and Literary Programming on the BBC Arabic Service Andrea L. Stanton	188
Case Study 6.2 'Is Everybody Happy?': Eddy Startz's Happy Station Vincent Kuitenbrouwer	194
7. Tuning-in to the World: International Broadcasting and its Audiences Rebecca Scales	201
Case Study 7.1 Listening to the BBC in Neutral Portugal during the Second World War Nelson Ribeiro	224
Case Study 7.2 Who (Else) is Listening? RIAS in the Early Cold War Friederike Kind-Kovács	230
8. The Soundscapes of the Wireless World Andrea L. Stanton	235
Case Study 8.1 Costes and Bellonte's Transatlantic Flight: Tuning-in to a Global Radio Event Rebecca Scales	250
Case Study 8.2 Jammed Soundscapes in Eastern Europe, c. 1948–1959 David Clayton	258
9. Afterword: The Wireless World in the Age of Wi-Fi Vincent Kuitenbrouwer	266
Timeline of Key Dates	277
Further Reading	281
Index	287

List of Illustrations

1. Front cover, BBC Portuguese Service promotional brochure, 1941, author's own collection. 6
2. Advertisement for Belling & Lee components, 1961, author's own collection. 7
3. Amateur short-wave radio operator, South Australia, c. 1921, State Library of South Australia, B 47585/34. 10
4. Front cover, Philips Radio Station Chart for Australian listeners, c. mid-1930s, Federation University Australia Historical Collection, 03650. 17
5. Northern Rhodesia Information Service publicity photograph, c. 1948, author's own collection. 49
6. QSL card from E. H. Stephan, Cape Town, South Africa, United Nations Archives, Geneva, League of Nations Information Section, Registry Files, Information, Publicity for Radio Nations, R5195. 58
7. QSL card from Norman Wehrli, Kilgore, TX, United Nations Archives, Geneva, League of Nations Information Section, Registry Files, Information, Publicity for Radio Nations, R5196. 58
8. Radio Nederland QSL Card, Netherlands Institute for Sound and Vision, Hilversum, Radio Netherlands Wereldomroep Collection, BA 00097. 65
9. Radio Nederland QSL Card including Bonaire Relay, Netherlands Institute for Sound and Vision, Hilversum, Radio Netherlands Wereldomroep Collection, BA 00097. 67
10. Radio Free Europe relay station, Salvaterra de Magos, Portugal, n.d., Mário Novais, Art Library Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian. 84
11. Radio Nations transmitter and aerials, United Nations Archives, Geneva, League of Nations Photograph Collection, LN287-292 Radio Nations, R06. 139
12. QSL Card for Azores Regional Station, Emissora Nacional, 1958, author's own collection. 156
13. BBC Portuguese Service staff (possibly in the correspondence section), BBC Portuguese Service promotional brochure, 1941, author's own collection. 225