

Key to field photographs

Where no institution is given, the photographs are from private collections.

CFH	: Christoph von Fürer-Haimendorf
CP	: Collection of Sir Charles Pawsey, Centre for South Asian Studies, Cambridge
CS	: C.R. Stonor, Pitt Rivers Museum Archive, Oxford
HNL	: Hseng Noung Lintner
JA	: Joyce Angami
JHH	: J.H. Hutton, Pitt Rivers Museum Archive, Oxford
JPM, PR	: J.P. Mills, Pitt Rivers Museum Archive, Oxford
JPM, SOAS	: J.P. Mills, School of Oriental and African Studies Archive
SK	: Sunil Khilnani
RGW	: R.G. Woodthorpe, Pitt Rivers Museum Archive, Oxford
UGB	: Ursula Graham Bower (Betts), Pitt Rivers Museum Archive, Oxford
WGA	: W.G. Archer

Key to Colour Plates

All photographs by Heini Schneebeli.

CUMAA	: Cambridge University Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology
MOM	: Museum of Mankind (The Trustees of the British Museum)
PC	: Private Collection
PR	: Pitt Rivers Museum, Oxford

The principal collectors whose objects figure in the museum collections include (with approximate dates of their period in the Naga Hills):

Henry Balfour (1922-3);
 Capt. John Butler (1869-75);
 Ursula Graham Bower (1937-46);
 Christoph von Fürer-Haimendorf (1936-7);
 J.H. Hutton (1909-35);
 J.P. Mills (1916-38);
 Sir Charles Pawsey (1920-48);
 Col. R.G. Woodthorpe (1875-6).

Contents

Acknowledgments	6
1 Introduction	9
2 The Observers and the Observed	17
3 The Morung	27
4 Environment and Economy	33
5 Technology	43
6 Social Organization	53
7 Chiefs and Democrats	69
8 Feasts of Merit	77
9 The Ritual World	83
10 Ornaments and Status Symbolism	103
11 Fertility	117
12 The Relations of Male and Female as seen in Ritual	131
13 War and Feud	135
14 Naga Nationalism	151
15 Nagaland Today	171
Colour Plates	179
Footnotes	350
Glossary	356
Bibliography	357