

Contents

Introduction	5	Geoffrey J. Giles
1945 and the Continuities of German History: Reflections on Memory, Historiography, and Politics	9	Konrad H. Jarausch
Stunde Null in German Politics? Confessional Culture, Realpolitik , and the Organization of Christian Democracy	25	Maria D. Mitchell
American Sociology and German Re-education after World War II	39	Uta Gerhardt
German Literature, Year Zero: Writers and Politics, 1945–1953	59	Stephen Brockmann
Stunde Null der Frauen? Renegotiating Women's Place in Postwar West Germany	75	Maria Höhn
The New City: German Urban Planning and the Zero Hour	89	Jeffrey M. Diefendorf
Stunde Null at the Ground Level: 1945 as a Social and Political Ausgangspunkt in Three Cities in the U.S. Zone of Occupation	105	Rebecca Boehling