

Contents

Preface: how to use this book	IX
1 Introduction – linguistic and other approaches to language	1
1.1 Orientation	1
1.2 Demonstration/discussion	9
1.3 Problems and challenges	14
1.4 Practice	18
2 Phonetics and phonology – the sounds of speech	21
2.1 Orientation	21
2.1.1 Sounds and letters: The need for a phonetic alphabet .	21
2.1.2 Sounds as sounds, and sounds as elements of linguistic systems: From phonetics to phonology	24
2.1.3 Stress, pitch, intonation – phonetics and phonology beyond the individual sound	29
2.2 Demonstration/discussion	31
2.3 Problems and challenges	35
2.4 Practice	38
3 Morphology and word-formation – the structure of the word	41
3.1 Orientation	41
3.1.1 Free and bound morphemes	41
3.1.2 Lexical and grammatical morphemes	45
3.2 Demonstration/discussion: The major word formation strategies of present-day English	47
3.3 Problems and challenges	53
3.4 Practice	57
4 Syntax I/general principles – the structure of the clause .	61
4.1 Orientation	61
4.1.1 Words, phrases, clauses and sentences	61
4.1.2 Form categories and their grammatical functions	66

4.2	Demonstration/discussion	68
4.2.1	Basic strategies for the expression of grammatical relations	68
4.2.2	Typological classification of languages	72
4.3	Problems and challenges	74
4.4	Practice	76
5	Syntax II/the fundamentals of English grammar	79
5.1	Orientation	79
5.1.1	Parts of speech	79
5.1.2	Phrases	82
5.1.3	Seven basic clause patterns	82
5.2	Demonstration/discussion	85
5.3	Problems and challenges	87
5.4	Practice	91
6	Semantics and lexicology – the meaning of words	95
6.1	Orientation	95
6.2	Demonstration/discussion	99
6.3	Problems and challenges	105
6.4	Practice	110
7	Pragmatics and discourse analysis	115
7.1	Orientation	115
7.2	Demonstration/discussion	125
7.3	Problems and challenges	128
7.4	Practice	131
8	Applied linguistics, language teaching and translation studies	135
8.1	Orientation	135
8.2	Demonstration/discussion	136
8.3	Problems and challenges	143
8.4	Practice	147
9	A pluricentric language – standard Englishes around the world	151
9.1	Orientation	151
9.2	Demonstration/discussion	156

9.3	Problems and challenges	162
9.4	Practice	168
10	Dialectology – regional variation in English	171
10.1	Orientation	171
10.2	Demonstration/discussion	172
10.3	Problems and challenges	177
10.4	Practice	180
11	Language in the city – social and ethnic variation, multilingualism	185
11.1	Orientation	185
11.2	Demonstration/discussion	186
11.3	Problems and challenges	191
11.4	Practice	198
12	Language change and the history of English	203
12.1	Orientation	203
	12.1.1 Old English period (c. 500 – c. 1100)	207
	12.1.2 Middle English period (c. 1100 – c. 1500)	209
	12.1.3 Early Modern English period (c. 1500 – c. 1750)	210
	12.1.4 Late Modern English and Present-Day English (since c. 1750)	212
12.2	Demonstration/discussion	213
12.3	Problems and challenges	216
12.4	Practice	220
13	Past masters, current trends – theorising linguistics for students of English	223
13.1	Orientation	223
13.2	Demonstration/discussion	224
13.3	Problems and challenges	234
13.4	Practice	237
14	Linguistics and the public – language myths, language politics, language planning and language rights	239
14.1	Orientation	239
14.2	Demonstration/discussion	245

14.3 Problems and challenges	248
14.4 Practice	256
Glossary of linguistic terms	259
Index	279