

Contents

1	Storytelling – More than Just Telling a Story	9
2	The Narrative Figure – Life, Theme, Function	13
2.1	Functional Figures	14
2.2	Mimetic Figures	18
2.3	Thematic Figures	20
2.4	Anti-narrative Figures	24
3	Setting – The Narrative Space	27
3.1	Juri Lotman and Semantic Space	28
3.2	Other Options for Spatial Semantization	33
3.3	Hierarchization of Spatial Events	39
4	Binary Narrative Oppositions – Opposites Make Sense	41
4.1	The Meaning of the Narrative	41
4.2	Production of Meaning through Binary Narrative Oppositions	42
4.3	Idea vs. Counter Idea – Narrative Oppositions in Film Dramaturgy	44
4.4	Binary Narrative Oppositions as a Structuring Principle in Serial and Interactive Narratives	45
5	Conflict – Obstacles Force Action	51
5.1	Conflicts as Initial Triggers for Action	51
5.2	Basic Forms of Conflict	52
5.3	The Universal Conflict	55
5.4	Conflict Types and Types of Plot	65
5.5	Want and Need	66

6	Transformation - What Needs to Change?	69
6.1	Transformation vs. Change	69
6.2	Transformation as a Criterion of Closure	70
6.3	The Cyclic Transformation	74
6.4	Transformations in Interactive Narratives	76
7	Emotion - Progression of Feelings	81
7.1	Emotions as Genres	82
7.2	Emotional Progression as a Structural Principle of Narratives	90
8	Turning Points - the Expected Surprise	97
8.1	Scientific Concepts of the Turning Point	97
8.2	The Turning Point in Applied Dramaturgy	100
8.3	The Effect of Turning Points in Literature and Film	102
8.4	Turning Points and Transformation in Interactive Narratives	106
9	Narrative Structure - The Hero's Journey in Three Acts	111
9.1	Dramatic Structure	111
9.2	Mythological Structure	114
9.3	Oral Structure	115
9.4	Interactive Structure	116
10	Causal Relationships - Why and How?	119
10.1	Causality as a Condition for Narrativity	119
10.2	Forms of Causality	120
10.3	Forms of Non-causal Narrative	123
10.4	Causality and Interactivity	125
11	Subtext and Gapping - Involving the Recipients	129
11.1	Gapping as a Text- and Media-Specific Strategy	129
11.2	Subtext	130
11.3	Generating Tension through Information Management	132
11.4	Information Management in Interactive Stories	137

12	Semantic Objects – McGuffins, Horcruxes and Holy Grails	141
12.1	Plot-functional vs. Non-functional	141
12.2	Semantic Objects in Narrative Media	145
12.3	The Semantization of Objects as a Communication Strategy	147
13	Epilogue: Values and a Worldview	151
14	Glossary	155
15	Bibliography	159
16	List of Figures	163