

List of tables and figures	x
Foreword	xiii
Preface	xvi
Appendix - lists of participants	xix
I The framework of approach	3
1 Crises in development	4
2 Third world advance since 1950	4
3 Earlier studies on technology	6
4 UNU/WIDER initiative	7
5 The process of technological transformation	8
6 Basic sources and structure	11
Notes	13
PART ONE - LOOKING BACK FOR LESSONS	17
II The long prelude	19
1 Dating technological transformation	20
2 Technological change since 4000 B.C.	21
3 Technological scene: 1850 to 1875	25

4 Indicators of social innovations	29
Notes	31
III Technological transformation in the North	33
1 Introduction	33
2 Pace, period, size and spread	36
3 Structural transformation	48
4 Motive forces	52
5 New national ethos	58
Notes	59
IV Technological distance between nations and 'catching-up'	62
1 Measuring technological distance	63
2 The distance between nations	66
3 The gap by sectors	72
4 Dynamics of 'catching-up'	76
Notes	84
PART TWO - SOUTH ON THE THRESHOLD OF ITS TRANSFORMATION	89
V Economic and technological setting	91
1 The South in the 1950s	91
2 Structural characteristics	96
3 Stagnation in social technology	99
4 Colonial inheritance	99
5 Technological dependence on the North	100
Notes	103
VI South enters the world stage: 1950 to 1985	104
1 Pace and spread of transformation	105
2 Assessment of achievements	107
3 Uneven pace of transformation	113
4 Landmarks in South's achievements	122
Notes	127
VII Structural transformation in the South	129
1 Urban explosion	130
2 Structural transformation of output and employment	132
3 Direction of South's structural transformation	148
Notes	150
VIII Motive forces of the advance of the South	152
1 Search for sources of transformation	153
2 Social technology as a motive force	156

3 Measuring the contribution of social technology	157
Notes	162
IX Building the physical technology base	164
1 Growth of domestic capital goods industry	166
2 External collaboration in investment and technology	175
Notes	186
X Strengthening the social technology formation	187
1 Advance in health standards	188
2 Dawn of South's age of enlightenment	189
3 Human capital formation	196
4 Research and development (R & D)	202
5 Learning by doing	212
Notes	215
PART THREE - LOOKING TO THE FUTURE WITH HOPE	217
XI Widening development distance within the South	219
1 General summary	220
2 Index of technological transformation (ITT)	222
3 Development gap widens	226
4 Crises in the vulnerable continents	233
Notes	238
XII East Asia's spectacular sprint: lessons to learn	240
1 East Asia's High Rate Development (HRD)	242
2 Flying geese pattern of HRD	246
3 Swift narrowing of the development distance	248
4 The flowering of HRD	255
5 Perspectives for the future	264
6 Lessons to learn	266
7 Notes	270