

Contents

List of illustrations	x
Preface and Acknowledgments	xii
List of Co-Authors and Contributors	xvi
How To Read This Book	xviii

PART I

What is Auto/biography? 1

Beginnings: Auto/biography, Biography, and Life Writing 1

Auto/biography 2

What is Autobiography? 2

What is Biography? 4

Other Life Writing Terms 5

Studying Auto/Biography: Approaches, Conventions, and Autobiographical Truth 7

Studying Life Narratives 7

Conventions of Auto/biography 11

Auto/biographical Truth 13

Auto/biographical Genres and Forms 17

Understanding Genre 18

Common Genres of Life Narrative in Canada 19

Conventional Memoir and Biography 20

Experimental Auto/biography and Biography 21

Letters and Epistolary Auto/biography 23

Diaries 24

PART II

Auto/biography in Canada 29

Reading the Nation 29

- National Mythologies and Settler Colonialism 31
- The Myth of Multiculturalism and Diasporic Lives 33
- Reading Canada: Canons, Markets, and Canada Reads 34
- Exploration, Travel, and Settlement: Settler-Colonial and Indigenous Accounts* 36
 - Reading with Settler Colonialism in Mind 37
 - Documents of Contact 38
 - Colonial Frontiers 40
- Modern Canada Between the First and Second World Wars* 41
 - The Great Depression 42
 - Documenting War 43
 - Famous Women: Auto/biography and Celebrity 43
 - Imposter Memoirs 45
- Indigenous Life Writing Since 1967* 46
 - Cultural Contexts: Laments for Confederation 47
 - Testimonial and Activist Writing 48
 - Truth and Reconciliation Commission 49
 - Indigenous Life Writing in the Twenty-First Century 50
- Case Study: Maria Campbell, Halfbreed (Deanna Reder's, Simon Fraser University)* 52
 - Introducing Deanna Reder 52
 - Background 52
 - Excerpt from Autobiography as Indigenous Intellectual Tradition 53
 - Further Reading 56
- Race, Nation, and the Limits of Imagined Community* 56
 - Japanese Canadian Internment Narratives 58
 - Life Narratives by Black Canadians 61
- Case Study: Lorena Gale, Je me souviens, 2001* 64
 - Background 64
 - Three Ways to Approach Je me souviens 66
 - Further Reading 67

PART III

Auto/biographical Stories

- Telling and Reading Auto/biographical Stories* 75
- Experimental and Hybrid Forms* 75
 - Autobiographical Poetry: Documenting the Everyday 76
 - Experimental Prose Life Writing 77
 - Experimental Plays 79
- Case Study: Fred Wah, Diamond Grill* 80

- Background 80
- Three Ways to Approach Diamond Grill 82
- Further Reading 85
- Auto/biographical Comics in Canada* 86
 - Studying Auto/biographical Comics 88
 - Indigenous Comics 90
 - Diasporic Auto/biographical Comics 91
 - Comics Travelogues 91
 - Graphic Medicine 92
 - Graphic Biography 93
 - Online Comics Diaries 94
- Testimony and Witnessing* 95
 - Testimony 95
 - Testimonial Auto/biography, Violence, and Survival 97
 - Testimonial Auto/biography and Collective Violence 98
- Disability and Illness Life Writing* 100
 - Life Writing and Disability 100
 - Illness Narratives 103
- Case Study: Dorothy Ellen Palmer, Falling For Myself (2019)* 104
 - Background 104
 - Three Ways to Approach Falling for Myself 104
 - Further Reading 107
- Diasporic Lives, Diasporic Stories* 107
 - Extending the Borders of the Nation-State 107
 - Transnational Lives 108
 - Experimental Diasporic Life Writing 109
 - Refugee Narratives 111
- Asian Canadian Life Writing (Eleanor Ty, Wilfrid Laurier University)* 111
 - Introducing Eleanor Ty 111
 - Asian Canadians 112
 - Asian Canadians and Life Writing 112
- Case Study: Jenny Heijun Wills, Older Sister. Not Necessarily Related (Eleanor Ty, Wilfrid Laurier University)* 113
 - Background 113
 - Context and History of Transnational Adoption 114
 - Three Ways to Approach Older Sister. Not Necessarily Related 115
 - Further Reading 117
- Queer Life Writing in Canada: 2SLGBTQIA+ Lives and Stories* 117

- Beyond Alphabet Soup: Queer 118
- Invisible: Queer Lives (and Life Writing) in Canada 118
- Gaps and Silences 119
- Visibility: Queer Lives 121
- Biography and Writers' Lives* 123
 - Experimental Biographies 126
- Case Study: Terry Fox and Biography* 127
 - Background: Who Was Terry Fox? 127
 - Three Ways of Thinking about Terry Fox 129
 - Further Reading 133

PART IV

Sites of Auto/biography

145

- Archives* 145
 - Formal Archives 146
 - Online Archives 148
 - Informal Archives 149
 - The Construction of Archives 150
- Case Study: The Rural Diary Archive* 154
 - Background 154
 - Three Ways to Approach the Diaries in This Collection 155
 - Further Reading 157
- Paratexts* 158
 - Life Narratives as Products 159
- Case Study: Paratexts I - Getting Started with Paratext* 160
 - Context and Background 160
 - Two Ways to Conduct a Paratextual Analysis 162
- Case Study: Paratexts II - Peritextual Analysis* 164
 - Context and Background 164
 - Three Ways to Approach Peritext 165
 - Further Reading 167
- Interviews* 167
 - How to interpret interviews as sites of auto/biography 168
- Listening to Many Voices: A Conversation Between Julie Rak and Karina Vernon* 170
 - Introducing Karina Vernon 170
 - Background 170
 - Listening to Many Voices: A Conversation Between Julie Rak and Karina Vernon 171

- Case Study: Listening to Many Voices (A Conversation Between Julie Rak and Karina Vernon)* 178
- About The Black Prairie Archives: An Anthology 178
- Three Ways to Approach the Interview 179
- Further Reading 180

PART VToolkits for Studying Auto/biography 185

- TOOLKIT 1: Studying Auto/Biography* 185
- The Basics: Getting a handle on the text 185
- Beyond the Basics 186
- TOOLKIT 2: Studying Auto/Biographical Comics* 188
- TOOLKIT 3: Archives and Archival Research* 189
- Identifying Archival Materials 189
- Capacity and Access: The Politics of Making and Using Archives 189
- Conducting Archival Research 190
- Studying Archival Documents 191
- TOOLKIT 4: Studying Paratexts* 192
- Questions to Guide a “Field Report” 192
- Questions to Guide a Reception Study I: Review Analysis 192
- Questions to Guide a Reception Study II: Prize Nomination or Contest Epitexts 193
- Opening questions for a peritextual analysis 193
- TOOLKIT 5: Studying Interviews* 194

- References* 196
- Index* 217