CHAPTER 1	Introduction	1
	Authors: Anita Kothari, Jo Rycroft-Malone, Chris McCutcheon, and Ian D. Graham
	Background: What Is This Book About?	1
	Focus of the Chapter: What Do We Mean by Research Coproduction?	4
	Known from the Literature: Intellectual Origins and Historical Traditions	6
	Scope of the Book	9
	References	11
CHAPTER 2	Foundations of Research Coproduction	14
CHAPTER 2.1.	Conceptualizing and Theorizing for Research Coproduction	14
	Authors: Anne MacFarlane and Jonathan Salsberg
	Introduction	15
	Meaningful Participation	17
	Theory and Theorizing	17
	Theorizing about Research Coproduction	18
	Enhancing Conceptual Clarity and Model Building	18
	Utilizing Existing Concepts for New and Deeper Understanding	19
	Participatory Implementation Research	21
	Case study: Blending Implementation Theory with Research Coproduction Practice	22
	Future Research	27
	Conclusion	28
	Acknowledgements	28
	References	29

CHAPTER 2.2.	Equity, Power, and Transformative Research Coproduction	34
	Authors: Katrina Plamondon, Sume Ndumbe-Eyoh, and Sana Shahram
	Introduction	35
	Power Is the Central Research Coproduction Problem	36
	What Is Known from the Literature?	40
	Experiential Knowledge	43
	Coproduction to Transform Organizations (Sume)	43
	Coproduction to Transform Networks/Communities (Katrina)	44
	Coproduction for Systems Transformation: The xaqqanaŋ ʔitkiniŋ Project (Sana)	44
	Practice Implications	45
	Future Research	48
	Conclusion	49
	References	50
CHAPTER 2.3.	Effects, Facilitators, and Barriers of Research Coproduction Reported in Peer-Reviewed Literature	54
	Authors: Katheryn M. Sibley, Femke Hoekstra, Anita Kothari, and Kelly Mrklas
	Introduction	55
	What Are Effects? What Are Facilitators and Barriers?	55
	Understanding Research Coproduction – an Evolving Area of Study	55
	Identifying Effects, Facilitators and Barriers – Our Approach	56
	Effects of Research Coproduction	57
	Effects on the Research Process	57
	Effects on Relationships	63
	Effects on Individuals	63
	Effects on Research Results or Outputs	64
	Effects on Practices or Programs	64
	Effects on Communities	64
	Effects on Policies and Systems	65
	Facilitators and Barriers to Research Coproduction	65
	Individual-Level Factors	66
	Relationship Factors	67
	Process Factors	67
	System-Level Factors	68
	Connecting Outcomes, Impacts, Facilitators, and Barriers of Research Coproduction	68

Implications for the Practice of Research Coproduction	69
Limitations and Evidence Gaps	70
Future Research	70
Conclusion	71

CHAPTER 3 Working with Knowledge Users 74

CHAPTER 3.1	Working with Knowledge Users	74
	Authors: Jo Cooke, Susan Mawson, and Susan Hampshire
	Introduction: Starting the Coproduction Journey	75
	What Is the Focus of This Chapter?	75
	Some Points from the Literature	75
	Experience from the Field	77
	Research Program Level: Setting Up a Programme Architecture that Can Enable Coproduction Structure, Flexible Resources, and Engagement Processes to Provide Context for Coproduction	79
	Setting Ground Rules: A Good Basis for Nurturing Productive Relationships	79
	Planning Priority-setting, Action, and Impact from the Start and Throughout	80
	Thinking of the Impact from the Beginning	80
	Vignette One: The Co-design of an Intervention to Increase Physical Activity in Doncaster.
	Coproduction in Local Government	81
	Vignette Two: Research Coproduction with Industry: Digital Technology to Transform End of Life Care	84
	Implications for Practice When Beginning the Coproduction Journey	87
	Future Research	88
	Conclusion	88
	References	88

CHAPTER 3.2	Research Coproduction with Patients and Caregivers	91
	Authors: Claire Ludwig and Davina Banner
	Introduction and Background	92
	Who Is a “Patient?”	93
	What Do We Know about Potential Benefits and Impacts of Research Coproduction with Patients?	95
	Barriers and Facilitators to Research Coproduction with Patients and Caregivers	96

	Experiential Knowledge: Patient and Caregiver Partner Implications for Practice	98
	Experiential Knowledge: Researcher Implications for Practice	100
	Future Research	105
	Conclusion	108
	References	108
CHAPTER 3.3	Conducting a Research Coproduction Project: A Principles-Based Approach	112
	Authors: Joe Langley, Sarah E. Knowles, and Vicky Ward
	Introduction	113
	Aim 1. Illustrating Why There Is No Research Coproduction 'Method'	114
	Aim 2. Five Principles of Coproduction and Resources to Enact Them	116
	Sharing Power	117
	Including All Perspectives	118
	Respecting and Valuing the Research Coproduction Partners	119
	Reciprocity	120
	Building Relationships	121
	Aim 3. Research Coproduction in the Real World: Challenges and Ways Forward	122
	Who to Work with	122
	When to Collaborate	123
	Institutional Power	124
	Expectations of Health Services Research	125
	Conclusion	126
	References	127
CHAPTER 3.4	The View from Within: Organizational Strategies for Effective Research Partnerships	129
	Authors: Sarah Bowen, Ian D. Graham, and Ingrid Botting
	Background/Introduction	130
	How Should Organizations Respond to Expectations of Research Partnership?	132
	Before Beginning to Plan for "Research Partnerships:" Clarifying the Concepts of "Partnership" and "Research"	132
	First Things First: Preparing to Become a Research Partner	134
	Developing Shared Understanding	134

	Determining Current Organizational Position	136
	Assessing Organizational Readiness	139
	Building a Strong Foundation	140
	From Principles to Action – Next Steps in Developing Research Partnerships	142
	Creating a Health System/Academic Interface	143
	Embedding Research Capacity within the Organization	146
	Planning for Implementation and Evaluation	146
	Future Research	147
	Conclusion	147
	References	147
CHAPTER 3.5	Managing Academic-Health Service Partnerships	151
	Authors: Alison M. Hutchinson, Cheyne Chalmers, Katrina Nankervis, and Nicole (Nikki) Phillips
	Introduction	152
	Background	153
	How to Manage Partnerships During the Research Process	154
	Experiential Knowledge of Managing a Partnership	156
	How to Sustain Partnerships	159
	Experiential Knowledge of Sustaining a Partnership	159
	How to Assess the Sustainability of Partnerships	161
	Assessing the Sustainability of Our Partnership	162
	Barriers/Facilitators and Strategies to Overcome Them	163
	Implications for the Practice of Research Coproductio	165
	Future Research	165
	Conclusion	166
	References	166
CHAPTER 4	Grant-Writing, Dissemination, and Evaluation	169
CHAPTER 4.1	Writing a Research Coproduction Grant Proposal	169
	Authors: Ian D. Graham, Chris McCutcheon, Jo Rycroft-Malone, and Anita Kothari
	Background	170
	So What Does It Take to Write a Successful Coproductio	171

	General Advice on Writing a Grant Proposal	171
	Coproduction Grant Proposal Writing Advice	173
	Tips on Writing Coproduction Research Grant Proposals	179
	Preconditions that Lead to a Successful Proposal Development – the Relationship and Preparatory Work	180
	Proposal Elements	181

CHAPTER 4.2	Coproduced Dissemination	192
	Authors: Chris McCutcheon, Anita Kothari, Ian D. Graham, and Jo Rycroft-Malone
	Background	193
	What Is Coproduced Dissemination?	193
	Coproduced Dissemination: What Is Known from the Literature?	194
	Compatibility of Coproduction and Dissemination	195
	Knowledge Exchange	196
	Guidance on Dissemination Planning	196
	Judicious Knowledge Translation	197
	Dissemination Planning at the Grant Proposal Stage	198
	From Research to Dissemination	199
	The Steps of Coproduced Dissemination Planning	200
	Set Dissemination Goals	201
	Assess Resources	201
	Identify and Learn about Your Audience(s)	202
	Develop Key Messages	203
	Select Dissemination Strategies	203
	Determine What Expertise Is Needed	204
	Evaluate	204
	Future Research	205
	Conclusion	205

CHAPTER 4.3	Evaluating Coproduction Research: Research Quality Plus for Coproduction (RQ+ 4 Co-Pro)	210
	Authors: Robert K.D. McLean, Ian D. Graham, and Fred Carden
	Introduction	211
	Roadmap	212
	Overview of the Research Evaluation Landscape	212
	Research Evaluation at Large	213
	Challenges for Research Coproduction Evaluation	214
	Deliberative Paradigm – Coproduction Limitations?	214
	Analytic Paradigm – Coproduction Limitations?	214
	RIA Paradigm – Coproduction Limitations?	214
	The Research Quality Plus (RQ+) Approach and the Novel Research Quality Plus for Coproduction (RQ+ 4 Co-Pro) Framework	217
	Three Tenets of the Research Quality Plus (RQ+) Approach	218
	Tenet 1 – Context Matters	218
	Why Does This Matter for Coproduction?	218
	Tenet 2 – Research Quality is Multi-dimensional	218
	Why Does This Matter for Coproduction?	219
	Tenet 3 – Judgement of Research Quality Must Be Grounded in Empirical Evidence and Its Systematic and Transparent Appraisal	219
