

CONTENTS

One. Principles of Action	1
1. Formality and Fertility, 1
2. Moral Principles and Morally Acceptable Principles, 2
3. The Structure of Practical Principles, 4
Two. The Problem of Relevant Act Descriptions	12
1. Principles and Acts, 12
2. Two Recent Universality Tests, 14
Three. A Solution to the Problem of Relevant Descriptions	32
1. Maxims, Ends, and Intentions, 34
Four. Ethical Categories	43
1. Duties of Justice, 44
2. Duties of Virtue, 51
3. Conclusions, 57
Five. Applying the Categorical Imperative	59
1. Contradiction in Conception, 63
2. Contradiction in the Will, 82
Six. An Assessment of Kant's Ethical Theory	94
1. Kant and Supererogation, 94
2. The Right and the Good in Kant's Ethical Theory, 97
3. Obligation and Moral Worth, 101
4. Kant's Theory of Right Action, 112
5. Kant's Theory of Morally Worthy Action, 117

Seven. Right Decisions and Assessments of Right	125
1. Contexts of Action and Contexts of Assessment, 126
2. Conflicting Grounds of Obligation, 132
3. Assessments of Right, 137
Bibliography	145
Index	149