

Contents

Preface	ix
Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	I
Part One. The Imagination: Precritical and Critical
1 Image Formation and Synthesis: From the Precritical Writings to the Critique of Pure Reason	9
2 The Figurative Synthesis of Imagination and the Meaning of Experience	26
Part Two. The Imagination in the Critique of Judgment
3 The Aesthetic Imagination: Beautiful Form and Reflective Specification	45
4 The Regress of the Imagination: The Sublime and the Form of the Subject	67
5 The Life of the Imagination	88
Part Three. Judgment and Reflective Interpretation
6 Ideas of the Imagination and Reflective Interpretation	III
7 Teleological Ideas and the Authentic Interpretation of History	130
8 Common Sense and Transcendental Orientation in Hermeneutics	154
Bibliography	173
Index	181