

TABLE OF CONTENTS

A manuscript of Leibniz on the use of characters	vii
Foreword	ix
1. Language and money: a simile and its meaning in 17th century philosophy of language	1
2. Leibniz, Hobbes, Locke and Descartes on signs, memory and reasoning	31
3. Signs and thought in Leibniz's Paris Notes	47
4. Leibniz's early views on definitions	61
5. On knowing truths of reason	81
6. Reason and the mysteries of faith: Leibniz on the meaning of religious discourse	93
7. About the idea of a generative grammar in Leibniz	125
Appendix: Leibniz's texts on language, signs and thought	145
1. On the demonstration of primary propositions (1671/2)	147
2. The analysis of languages (1678)	161
3. A geometric characteristic (1679)	167
4. Verbal characteristic (1680, approximately)	175
5. Thought, signs, and the foundations of logic (after 1684)	181
6. On the connection between words and things (undated)	189
Bibliography	191
Index	197