

THE
T A B L E
OF THE E S S A Y S.

ESSAY I.	A Fair Enquiry and Debate concerning Space	Page 1
Sect. 1.	The Subject explained in general	ibid.
2.	Is Space Something or Nothing?	3
3.	Is Space a Substance?	4
4.	Is Space created or increated?	8
5.	Space cannot be God	11
6.	A Review and Recollection of the Argument	20
7.	The Original of our Idea of Space, and our Danger of a Mistake	23
8.	Space compared to Shadow or Darknes	25
9.	Space unactive and impassive	28
10.	A Re-examination whether Space has any real Properties	31
11.	An Objection against the Nibility of Space answer'd	38
12.	Space nothing real and existing, but a meer abstract Idea	42
ESSAY II.	Of Substance; and of solid Extension and a Thinking Power, as the two only original Substances	47
Sect. 1.	Mr. Locke's Notion of Substance consider'd	ib.
2.	The plain Idea or Notion of Substance applied to Mind and Body	50
		Sect.

The T A B L E.

Sect. 3.	Considerations to support the Application of the Name of Substance to solid Extension and a Thinking Power	Page 54
4.	The Occasions of Mistake on this Subject	63
ESSAY III.	Of the Original of our Perceptions and Ideas	73
ESSAY IV.	Of innate Ideas, and Propositions, natural and moral	99
Sect 1.	The common Opinion well refuted by Mr. Locke	ibid.
2.	In what Sense many Ideas are innate	101
3.	In what Sense some Truths may be innate	105
4.	In what Sense some Rules of Duty may be innate	107
5.	Of the Foundations of moral Virtue, and of a moral Sense or Instinct	109
ESSAY V.	An Enquiry whether the Soul thinks always	115
Sect. 1.	Considerations towards the Proof of it	ibid.
2.	Of Dreams, why not remember'd	120
3.	Mr. Locke's Objections answered	125
ESSAY VI.	Of the Power of Spirits to move Bodies, of their being in a Place, and removing from it	133
Sect. 1.	Of the Power of a Spirit to move Matter	ib.
2.	Of Spirits being in a Place, and removing thence	147
3.	The first Question about the Locality of Spirits answered	153
4.	Other Objections answered against the Locality of Spirits	161
5.	The Ubi or Whereness of a Spirit	166
ESSAY VII.	The departing Soul	172
ESSAY VIII.	The Resurrection of the same Body	183
ESSAY IX.	Of the Production, Nourishment, and Operations of Plants and Animals	196
Sect. 1.	Creatures produce their own Kind	ibid.
		Sect.

The T A B L E.

Sect. 2.	The Laws of Nature sufficient for the Production of Animals and Vegetables	Page 202
	An Appendix in Opposition to the Opinion of all Animals and Plants being contain'd in the first Plant and Animal	209
3.	Of the Nourishment and Growth of Plants	217
4.	Of the Nourishment and Growth of Animals	223
5.	An amusing Digression concerning the Changes of Matter	229
6.	The similar Operations of Plants and Animals	237
7.	Of the Principles of Action in Brutes and Men	242
ESSAY X.	Of Sun-Beams and Star-Beams	250
Sect. 1.	Is the Æther beyond our Atmosphere a meer Vacuity?	ibid.
	Doth the World grow bigger or less?	255
ESSAY XI.	On some Metaphysical Subjects	261
Sect. 1.	Of Nature and Essence	ibid.
	Of Matter and Form	267
	Of the different Senses of the Word Nature	272
	Of Creation or Conservation	274
ESSAY XII.	Remarks on some Chapters of Mr. Locke's Essay on the Human Understanding	277
Sect. 1.	Of sensible Qualities, and particularly of Colour	ibid.
	Of Succession and Duration	281
	Of Infinity	284
	Of Power	285
	Whether Liberty can be ascribed to the Will?	287
	Of complex Ideas and mixed Modes	291
	Of Identity and Diversity	294