

CONTENTS

	PAGE
PREFACE . . . . .	v
CHAPTER
I. AFRICANS TRANSPLANTED . . . . .	3
The Negro in Africa.
Africans and Foreigners.
II. EXPERIENCES IN A NEW WORLD . . . . .	24
Slavery as a New Institution.
Striking for Freedom.
The Unexpected Tendency of Forced Labor.
III. NATURAL AND INALIENABLE RIGHTS OF MAN . . . . .	48
The American Revolution and the Negro.
Liberty Wisely Used.
Diminished Interest in Freedom.
IV. PAYING THE PRICE OF FREEDOM . . . . .	77
Efforts toward Liberation.
The Reds and the Blacks.
Loyalty not Appreciated.
V. THE ORDEAL REVIVES A REMEDY . . . . .	99
Slavery Fully Developed.
The Free Negro.
Colonization.
VI. THE CRITICAL PERIOD . . . . .	127
Abolition.
The Constitution Invoked.
Counter Currents before the Storm.

CHAPTER	PAGE
VII. SECTIONAL CONFLICT AND ITS AFTERMATH	155
The Negro in the Civil War.
Reconstruction.
Reformers and Their Reforms.
VIII. READJUSTMENT AFTER CONFLICT . . . . .	182
Finding a Way of Escape.
Achievements in Freedom.
Handicaps in Spite of Progress.
IX. MAKING THE WORLD SAFE FOR DEMOCRACY . . . . .	212
The Negro in the World War.
The Negro and Social Justice.
Courageous Efforts.
X. THE NEGRO'S STATUS BETWEEN WORLD WARS	235
Health.
Various Pursuits.
In Business.
The Church.
Social Welfare.
XI. THE NEGRO BECOMES AN INTERNATIONAL FACTOR . . . . .	253
In the Carribbean.
In the West Indies.
In Latin America.
In Africa.
Attitudes of American Negroes.
Independent African Governments.
XII. THE NEGRO IN WORLD WAR II AND KOREA . . . . .	291
At the Beginning of the War.
Race a Factor.
Problems of Army Service.
In all Military Services.
Korea.
Continued Progress in Military Services.

CONTENTS

xi

CHAPTER	PAGE
XIII. THE AWAKENING OF AFRICA . . . . .	319
The African Tradition.
African Political Movements.
African Self-Government.
Problems To Be Faced.
The Negro in the United Nations.
XIV. OPPORTUNITY AND ECONOMIC PROGRESS . . . . .	344
Opportunity at Mid-Century.
Opportunity and Public Cooperation.
Negro Employment.
Labor Organization.
The Negro Market.
The Negro in Business.
The Negro's Improved Economic Status.
XV. EDUCATION MOVES FORWARD . . . . .	361
Education in Transition.
Educational Movements.
Elementary and Secondary Education.
Higher Education.
Unification of Educational Memberships.
Professional and Special Education.
The Tests of Intelligence.
In State and National Service.
Fraternal and Church interest and support.
The Church and Education.
XVI. CREATING ACHIEVEMENT . . . . .	391
Achievement.
Literature.
Music.
Art.
Public Service.
Science and Technology.
Religion and the Church.

CHAPTER	PAGE
XVII. CONTRIBUTIONS TO CIVILIZATION ANALYZED .	427
History and the Negro.
Why the Negro in History?
Bias on the Records.
Civilization a World Achievement.
The Higher Aim.	