

Contents

---

- 1 Introduction: The Case for a Black Theology of Hope ..... 11

---

- 2 The Meaning of the Black Experience in Historic Perspective ..... 18
  - A. The Pre-Civil War Development of the Black Experience
  - B. The Post-Civil War Development of the Black Experience Since 1863

---

- 3 The Pre-Civil War Expressions of the Church and Slavery ..... 34
  - A. The Pre-Civil War White Church
  - B. The Pre-Civil War Black Church

---

- 4 Post-Civil War Expressions of the Church ..... 47
  - A. The Post-Civil War White Church
  - B. The Post-Civil War Black Church

---

- 5 The Nature of the Church in Black Theological Perspective ..... 57

|          |  |     |
|----------|--|-----|
| 6 | The Meaning of the Current Black Awareness Movement .....                          | 63  |
|          | A. The Courage to Be Black  |     |
|          | B. The Current Meaning of Black Self-assertion                              |     |
|          | C. The True Meaning of Freedom  |     |
|          | D. The Ultimate Goal of Black Self-assertion                                |     |
| <hr/>    |  |     |
| 7 | The Implications of a Theology of Hope for the Black Community .....               | 87  |
|          | A. The Fused Concepts of Hope and Revolution                                |     |
|          | B. The Black Christian's Dilemma with Revolution                            |     |
|          | C. The Conflicting Ideologies of Violence and Non-violence                  |     |
|          | D. The Humane Principle of Revolution                                       |     |
|          | E. Toward an "Ethics of Distress"   |     |
|          | F. Nonviolence as a Revolutionary Method                                    |     |
| <hr/>    |  |     |
| 8 | The Future of the Concept of God in the Black Community .....                      | 107 |
|          | A. Black Liberation, the Concept of God, and the Idea of a People Chosen    |     |
|          | B. Black Awareness and the Color of God                                     |     |
|          | C. Black Liberation and a God Who Takes Sides                               |     |
|          | D. Black Liberation and the Concept of God for a World Come of Age          |     |
|          | E. Toward a More Adequate Concept of God for the Black Awareness Revolution |     |
| <hr/>    |  |     |
| 9 | Community Beyond Racism .....  | 132 |