

CONTENTS

| | |
|--|--------|
| EDITORIAL NOTE | page v |
| I. INTRODUCTION | I |
| 1. Preparatory remarks, p. 1. 2. Influences, p. 2. 3. The development of the sociology of knowledge, p. 9. 4. Critique of Mannheim's sociology of knowledge, p. 27. | |
| II. ON THE INTERPRETATION OF 'WELTAN- SCHAUUNG' | 33 |
| 1. The problem outlined, p. 33. 2. The struggle for a synthesis, p. 34. 3. Rationalism v. Irrationalism, p. 37. 4. 'Weltanschauung': its mode of presentation. The three kinds of meaning, p. 43. 5. The pre-theoretical structure of cultural products, p. 63. 6. How can the global outlook be treated scientifically? p. 70. | |
| III. HISTORICISM | 84 |
| 1. Static and dynamic thought, p. 84. 2. The starting-points of a theory of historicism (Troeltsch), p. 97. 3. Forms of historical movement, p. 109. 4. Historicism and sociology, p. 124. 5. Dynamic standards in thought and practice, p. 126. | |
| IV. THE PROBLEM OF A SOCIOLOGY OF KNOWLEDGE | 134 |
| 1. The problem constellation, p. 134. 2. Theoretical positions, p. 146. 3. Sociology of knowledge from the standpoint of modern phenomenology (Max Scheler), p. 154. 4. Sociology of knowledge from the dynamic standpoint, p. 179. | |

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|----------|
| V. COMPETITION AS A CULTURAL PHENOMENON | page 191 |
| VI. ON THE NATURE OF ECONOMIC AMBITION AND ITS SIGNIFICANCE FOR THE SOCIAL EDUCATION OF MAN | 230 |
| 1. The social education of man, p. 230. 2. What is 'success'?, p. 235. 3. Objective and subjective success, p. 237. 4. Unstable and relatively stable forms of subjective success, p. 239. 5. The social structure and chances of success, p. 241. 6. Success in a career, p. 247. 7. Social sectors subject to and devoid of conflict, p. 249. 8. Striving for success in general, p. 250. 9. The striving for economic success, p. 257. 10. Historical flexibility of economic ambition, p. 261. 11. Types of ambition; types of personality; types of culture, p. 266. 12. Flexibility of ambition according to social differentiation, p. 271. | |
| VII. THE PROBLEM OF GENERATIONS | 276 |
| 1. How the problem stands at the moment, p. 276. 2. The sociological problem of Generations, p. 286. | |
| BIBLIOGRAPHY OF THE PROBLEM OF GENERATIONS | 321 |
| INDEX | 323 |