

Contents

|                                    | PAGE |
|------------------------------------|------|
| Preface to the First Edition ..... | v    |
| Note to the Second Edition .....   | vii  |
| List of Abbreviations .....        | xiv  |

BOOK I. THE MIDDLE AGES

PART I. THE OLD ENGLISH PERIOD (TO 1100)

| CHAPTER |   |    |
|---------|---|----|
| I.      | I. Folk, State, and Speech .....                      | 3  |
| II.     | II. Anglo-Latin Writings .....                        | 12 |
| III.    | III. The Old Tradition: Poetic Form .....             | 20 |
| IV.     | IV. The Old Tradition: Popular Poetry .....           | 32 |
| V.      | V. The Old Tradition: Courtly Poetry .....            | 45 |
| VI.     | VI. Religious Poetry: Cædmon and His School .....     | 60 |
| VII.    | VII. Religious Poetry: Cynewulf and His School .....  | 70 |
| VIII.   | VIII. Religious Poetry: Poems on Various Themes ..... | 78 |
| IX.     | IX. Secular Poetry .....                              | 88 |
| X.      | X. Literary Prose .....                               | 96 |

PART II. THE MIDDLE ENGLISH PERIOD (1100-1500)

|        |  |     |
|--------|--|-----|
| I.     | I. General Characteristics of the Period .....             | 109 |
| II.    | II. The Survival of the Native Tradition (1100-1250) ..... | 117 |
| III.   | III. The Ancrene Riwle .....                               | 127 |
| IV.    | IV. Anglo-Norman Literature .....                          | 135 |
| V.     | V. Early Latin Writers .....                               | 143 |
| VI.    | VI. Wit and Wisdom .....                                   | 152 |
| VII.   | VII. For Their Soul's Need .....                           | 158 |
| VIII.  | VIII. The Arthurian Legend to Layamon .....                | 165 |
| IX.    | IX. The Romance: I .....                                   | 173 |
| X.     | X. The Romance: II .....                                   | 185 |
| XI.    | XI. The Omnibus of Religion .....                          | 200 |
| XII.   | XII. The Lyric .....                                       | 208 |
| XIII.  | XIII. Richard Rolle and Other Mystics .....                | 225 |
| XIV.   | XIV. The Alliterative Revival .....                        | 232 |
| XV.    | XV. Piers Plowman and Other Alliterative Poems .....       | 240 |
| XVI.   | XVI. Chaucer: I .....                                      | 249 |
| XVII.  | XVII. Chaucer: II .....                                    | 258 |
| XVIII. | XVIII. Other Contemporaries of Chaucer .....               | 264 |

| CHAPTER |                                   | PAGE |
|---------|-----------------------------------|------|
| XIX.    | The Beginnings of the Drama ..... | 273  |
| XX.     | Ebb Tide .....                    | 288  |
| XXI.    | Looking Forward .....             | 300  |

BOOK II. THE RENAISSANCE

PART I. THE EARLY TUDORS (1485-1558)

|      |                           |     |
|------|---------------------------|-----|
| I.   | Links with the Past ..... | 315 |
| II.  | The New Learning .....    | 326 |
| III. | The New World .....       | 336 |
| IV.  | Satire .....              | 346 |
| V.   | The Interlude .....       | 358 |
| VI.  | Religious Prose .....     | 367 |

PART II. THE REIGN OF ELIZABETH (1558-1603)

|       |   |     |
|-------|---|-----|
| I.    | The Elizabethan Lyric .....                         | 383 |
| II.   | Verse Narrative .....                               | 398 |
| III.  | Prose Narrative: I. Lyly and His Predecessors ..... | 412 |
| IV.   | Prose Narrative: II. Greene and His Followers ..... | 421 |
| V.    | Miscellaneous Prose .....                           | 434 |
| VI.   | Elizabethan Comedy .....                            | 446 |
| VII.  | Elizabethan Tragedy .....                           | 460 |
| VIII. | Sidney and the Sonneteers .....                     | 472 |
| IX.   | Edmund Spenser .....                                | 483 |
| X.    | The Faerie Queene: The Spenserians .....            | 496 |
| XI.   | Christopher Marlowe .....                           | 508 |
| XII.  | Shakespeare to 1603 .....                           | 519 |

PART III. THE EARLY STUARTS AND THE COMMONWEALTH (1603-1660)

|       |  |     |
|-------|--|-----|
| I.    | Shakespeare under James .....  | 533 |
| II.   | Jacobean Drama: I. Dramatists of the Old School .....                          | 541 |
| III.  | Jacobean Drama: II. The Satiric Group .....                                    | 552 |
| IV.   | Jacobean Drama: III. The Romantic Playwrights .....                            | 571 |
| V.    | Caroline Drama, 1625-1642 .....  | 578 |
| VI.   | Seventeenth-Century Prose: I. Bacon and the Prose of Utility .....             | 590 |
| VII.  | Seventeenth-Century Prose: II. Character Books. Autobiography.Walton ..... | 602 |
| VIII. | Seventeenth-Century Prose: III. The Baroque Glory .....                        | 613 |
| IX.   | Seventeenth-Century Poetry: I. The Olympians .....                             | 624 |

CHAPTER

|  | PAGE |
|--|------|
| X. Seventeenth-Century Poetry: II. The Moral Tradition .....                     | 637  |
| XI. Seventeenth-Century Poetry: III. The Academic and CourtlyTradition ..... | 651  |
| XII. Seventeenth-Century Poetry: IV. Links with the Restoration .....            | 665  |
| XIII. Milton, "The Last Elizabethan" .....                                       | 673  |
| XIV. Milton's Latin Poems and Prose Works .....                                  | 681  |
| XV. Milton in the Restoration .....  | 689  |

BOOK III. THE RESTORATION AND EIGHTEENTH CENTURY
(1660-1789)

PART I. THE RISE OF CLASSICISM

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| I. The Spirit of the Restoration .....                    | 699 |
| X Literary Criticism of the Restoration .....  | 710 |
| III. The Poetry of Dryden .....                           | 722 |
| IV. Minor Poets of the Restoration .....                  | 733 |
| V. Restoration Drama: I. Heroic Plays and Tragedies ..... | 748 |
| VI. Restoration Drama: II. Comedy .....                   | 762 |
| VII. Patterns in Historical Writing .....                 | 780 |
| VIII. Types of Prose Fiction .....                        | 793 |
| IX. The Essay and Allied Forms .....                      | 806 |

PART II. CLASSICISM AND JOURNALISM

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| I. Eighteenth-Century Quality .....                      | 823 |
| II. The Critical Temper and Doctrine, 1700-1750 .....    | 833 |
| III. Defoe and Journalism .....                          | 847 |
| IV. Jonathan Swift .....                                 | 857 |
| V. Addison, Steele, and the Periodical Essay .....       | 870 |
| VI. The Drama, 1700-1740 .....                           | 883 |
| VII. Traditions in Early Eighteenth-Century Poetry ..... | 898 |
| VIII. Pope and His Group .....                           | 915 |
| IX. New Voices in Poetry .....                           | 933 |
| X. The Mid-Century Novel .....                           | 950 |

PART III. THE DISINTEGRATION OF CLASSICISM

|                                 |      |
|---------------------------------|------|
| I. Accentuated Tendencies ..... | 967  |
| II. Opinions of Critics .....   | 977  |
| III. Dr. Johnson .....          | 989  |
| IV. Mid-Century Poets .....     | 1005 |

| CHAPTER |  | PAGE |
|---------|--|------|
| V.      | The Novel After 1760 .....                 | 1021 |
| VI.     | The Drama, 1740-1785 .....                 | 1035 |
| VII.    | The Periodicals and Oliver Goldsmith ..... | 1050 |
| VIII.   | Biography and Letter-Writing .....         | 1063 |
| IX.     | Intellectual Prose .....                   | 1081 |
| X.      | Cowper and Burns .....                     | 1095 |

BOOK IV. THE NINETEENTH CENTURY
AND AFTER (1789-1939)

|         |  |      |
|---------|--|------|
| I.      | The Background of Revolution, Repression, and Reform,1789-1832 .....                   | 1111 |
| II.     | Romanticism .....  | 1122 |
| III.    | William Blake .....  | 1128 |
| IV.     | William Wordsworth .....   | 1136 |
| V.      | Samuel Taylor Coleridge .....  | 1149 |
| VI.     | Robert Southey, Walter Savage Landor, and Other Poets                                      | 1159 |
| VII.    | Reviews and Magazines: 1802-1830; The Essayists .....                                      | 1176 |
| VIII.   | Gothic Romance and the Novel of Doctrine .....   | 1192 |
| IX.     | Jane Austen .....  | 1200 |
| X.      | Sir Walter Scott .....   | 1207 |
| XI.     | Lord Byron .....   | 1219 |
| XII.    | Percy Bysshe Shelley .....   | 1230 |
| XIII.   | John Keats .....   | 1241 |
| XIV.    | Thomas Hood, Thomas Lovell Beddoes, and Other Poets  | 1252 |
| XV.     | The Drama in Decline .....   | 1264 |
| XVI.    | The Novel between Scott and Dickens .....  | 1270 |
| XVII.   | The Background: 1832-1868. The Progress of Reform .....                                    | 1279 |
| XVIII.  | The Religious Revival and Its Expression in Literature .....                               | 1287 |
| XIX.    | The Theory of Evolution and Its Repercussions .....  | 1299 |
| XX.     | Thomas Carlyle .....   | 1309 |
| XXI.    | Philosophy, History, and Miscellaneous Prose .....   | 1322 |
| XXII.   | John Ruskin .....  | 1336 |
| XXIII.  | Charles Dickens, Wilkie Collins, and Charles Reade .....                                   | 1344 |
| XXIV.   | Thackeray and Trollope .....   | 1355 |
| XXV.    | Other Novelists of the Mid-Century .....   | 1364 |
| XXVI.   | Alfred Tennyson .....  | 1382 |
| XXVII.  | The Brownings .....  | 1392 |
| XXVIII. | Matthew Arnold and Arthur Hugh Clough; Edward Fitz-Gerald and James Thomson ("B.V.") ..... | 1405 |

| CHAPTER   | PAGE |
|---|------|
| XXIX. Rossetti and His Circle .....   | 1421 |
| XXX. William Morris .....   | 1430 |
| XXXI. Algernon Charles Swinburne .....  | 1439 |
| XXXII. The Background: The Victorian Decline (1868-1901) andthe Aftermath (1901-1939) ..... | 1448 |
| XXXIII. George Meredith .....   | 1455 |
| XXXIV. Thomas Hardy .....   | 1464 |
| XXXV. Aestheticism and "Decadence" .....  | 1475 |
| XXXVI. The Novel: Naturalism and Romance .....  | 1485 |
| XXXVII. The Irish Literary Renaissance .....  | 1507 |
| XXXVIII. Modern Drama .....   | 1516 |
| XXXIX. Other Late-Victorian Poets .....   | 1532 |
| XL. The Modern Novel .....  | 1547 |
| XLI. Poetry in the Twentieth Century .....  | 1572 |
| XLII. Anthropology; Travel; History; Criticism .....  | 1589 |

Bibliographical Supplement

|                |                   |      |
|----------------|-------------------|------|
| Book I .....   | [3-15] .....      | 1607 |
| Book II .....  | [315-324] .....   | 1637 |
| Book III ..... | [699] .....       | 1677 |
| Book IV .....  | [1111-1117] ..... | 1719 |
| Index .....    |                   | i    |