

Contents

List of contributors	page	x
Preface		xv
Map		xvi
Introduction		I
ERIK KOOPER
PART I COURT AND CITY
1 Court and city culture in the Low Countries from 1100 to 1530		11
W. PREVENIER
2 Middle Dutch literature at court (with special reference to the court of Holland-Bavaria)		30
FRITS VAN OOSTROM
3 Heralds, knights and travelling		46
WIM VAN ANROOIJ
4 The rise of urban literature in the Low Countries		62
HERMAN PLEIJ
PART II THE WORLD OF CHIVALRY
5 Middle Dutch Charlemagne romances and the oral tradition of the chansons de geste		81
EVERT VAN DEN BERG and BART BESAMUSCA
6 The prologue to Arturs doet , the Middle Dutch translation of La Mort le Roi Artu in the Lancelot Compilation		96
BART BESAMUSCA and ORLANDA S. H. LIE

- 7 The Roman van Walewein, an episodic Arthurian romance 113
J. D. JANSSENS
- PART III REYNARD THE FOX
- 8 Words and deeds in the Middle Dutch Reynaert stories 131
PAUL WACKERS
- PART IV THE LITERATURE OF LOVE
- 9 Dirc Potter, a medieval Ovid 151
A. M. J. VAN BUUREN
- 10 Hovedans: fourteenth-century dancing songs in the Rhine and Meuse area 168
FRANK WILLAERT
- PART V RELIGIOUS LITERATURE
- 11 The saint and the world: the Middle Dutch Voyage of Saint Brendan 191
CLARA STRIJBOSCH
- 12 Hadewijch: mystic poetry and courtly love 208
J. REYNAERT
- 13 The Modern Devotion and innovation in Middle Dutch literature 226
TH. MERTENS
- PART VI ARTES TEXTS
- 14 A fourteenth-century vernacular poetics: Jan van Boendale's 'How Writers Should Write' (with a Modern English translation of the text by Erik Kooper) 245
W. P. GERRITSEN, H. VAN DIJK, ORLANDA S. H. LIE
and A. M. J. VAN BUUREN
- 15 From food therapy to cookery-book 261
RIA JANSEN-SIEBEN

PART VII DRAMA

16	The drama texts in the Van Hulthem manuscript H. VAN DIJK	283
	Appendix A – Bibliography of translations	297
	Appendix B – Chronological table	305
	Index	320