

CONTENTS

I	A Negro Culture and American Manhood	15
II	Social Reform Through Social Science	39
III	The Overture to Protest: Beginnings of the Du Bois-Washington Controversy	54
IV	The Radicals Fail to Effect a Rapprochement	77
V	Niagara Movement: The Protest	94
VI	The N.A.A.C.P. Is Founded: White Liberals and the Protest	120
VII	The Crisis Magazine Grows: More N.A.A.C.P. Crises Develop	151
VIII	Du Bois as Accommodationist: Co-operation with Erstwhile Enemies	184
IX	The Pan-African Movement: Negroes of the World Unite!	208
X	The New Negro and the Old Du Bois	236
XI	Exit from N.A.A.C.P.	272
XII	The Recent Years: An Epilogue	286
XIII	Conclusions	297
	Notes	319
	Sources Consulted	358
	Index	377