

Preface xi

[1] The Stress System of Modern English

- (1) The Main Stress Rule 3
- (2) Stress Contours of Compound Words and Phrases 15
- (3) The Alternating Stress Rule and the Stress Adjustment Rule 26
- (4) Vowel Reduction 29
- (5) Stress Retraction and the Main Stress Rule 31
- (6) Further Remarks on Vowel Reduction:
 Auxiliary Reduction Rule 35
- (7) Complex Verbs 37
- (8) Further Extensions of the Main Stress Rule 40
- (9) Vowel Reduction and the Cyclical Application of Rules 49
- (10) Summary of Rules 58
- (11) Exceptions 61
- (12) Remarks on Stress in Adjectives and Verbs 76
- (13) Conclusion 82

[2] The Evolution of the English Stress System

- (1) Introduction 87
- (2) Old English Stress 87
- (3) Late Middle English Stress 97
- (4) Early Modern English Stress 109
 - The Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries (Levins, Shakespeare, Cooper) 109*
 - The Eighteenth Century (Walker, Nares) 123*
 - The Nineteenth Century 131*
- (5) Conclusion 135

[3] A Theory of Meter

(1) Introduction 139

The Nature of Meter 140

Metrical Complexity or Tension 142

Different Correspondence Rules for the Same Abstract Pattern 144

(2) Old English Alliterative Verse 147

(3) Iambic Pentameter 164

Bibliography 181

Indexes

Word Index 189

Affix Index 202

Subject Index 203