

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction to the Volume	1
PART 1
The Genre of the Short Story and Its Emergence and Development in Canada	5
1 The Genre of Short Fiction and Its Position in the Canadian Literary Landscape	7
2 Sketchy Beginnings and “Becoming Canadian”: From the Early 19th Century to Confederation Literature	26
3 From the Dawn of Modernism to the “Bursting Dam of the Sixties”	47
4 From the 1960s to the Mid-1980s: A Genre Establishes Itself	70
PART 2
The Canadian Short Story from the Mid-1980s to the Present	99
5 Metafiction and “Unnatural” Narrative Voices	101
6 Fragmentation in the “Era of the Vulnerable”	119
7 Gender Scripts and Queer Identities	139
8 Indigenous Short Fiction in English	164

vi	Contents
9	Migration and Diaspora	189
10	Narratives of Loss – Domestic and Environmental Contexts	216
	Afterword	243
	Index	246