

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction	3
History, Identity, and the Problem of Closure. The Historical Moment and the Force of Form. A Brief Itinerary.
1. "her imperiall Maiestie to frame"	29
Fashioning Authorial Status. The Erasure of John Skelton, Laureate. Figuring Hierarchy. Spenser's "Gnat."
2. The Poem's Two Bodies	68
The Aesthetic Theology of The Faerie Queene . The Retraction of Redcrosse. Epistemological Romance. The Ideological Force of The Faerie Queene . The Catachrestic Body.
3. Arthur's Dream	120
Rivals and Mirrors. Arthur's Dream. Gloriana's "Pourtraict." The Ideological Solidarity of The Faerie Queene .
4. Alma's Nought	164
The Virile Member. How to "Avoid" the Genitals. The Intentional Turret. The Origin of History. How to Read History Prudently. The Feminine Supplement.
5. The Wide Womb of the World	215
The Threshold of Metaphor. Belphoebe's Virginity. The Conception of Allegory. The Nausea of Fertility. The Allegory of Poesis. The Double Threshold. Precocious Mourning.
Afterword	282
Index	289