

/Contents

In Gratitude	vii
1. Introduction	3
2. Thrust of Human History	10
Materialist interpretation of history, Class struggle, Limitations of theory, Human will, Dialectics, Trusteeship, Method of persuasion, Primacy of soul.
3. Basic Economic Concepts	29
Labour theory of value, Surplus value, Socialisation of means of production, Khadi and role of cottage industries, Economy of self-sufficiency.
4. Methodology of Change	42
Attitude to State, State and revolution, Withering away of State, Gandhian technique of struggle, Satyagraha, Civil disobedience, Non-cooperation, Countervailing forces of voluntary constructive work organisations.
5. Prophecy and Reality	57
Crisis in capitalism, Dictatorship of proletariat, Stage of revolution, Emergence of Fascism, Law of increasing misery and Pauperisation of middle classes, Efficacy of Satyagraha under dictatorship.

6.	Power to the Grass-roots Marx's stress on centralisation, Gandhiji's emphasis on decentralisation of political power and economy, Rationalisation of concepts.	67
7.	Peasant — Barrier or Architect? Role of peasant according to Marx, Comparison between the approaches of Marx, Lenin, Stalin, Mao and Tito, Gandhiji's views.	80
8.	Divergence in Perspectives Individual and society, Ends and Means, Man and Machine, Nationalism and Religion.	102
9.	Relevance to Our Times Context of the problems of two- thirds underdeveloped world, Centralisation and decentralisation, Cooperative movement, Correspondence between ends and means, Efficacy of the weapon of love, Aberrations of affluence, Oscillation of society between class and caste, A new integration.	123
10.	Two Profiles Karl Marx and Mahatma Gandhi.	136
	Index	139