

Contents

Abbreviated Titles and Sources	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
1. Introduction: Domestic Ideology and the Dickens Text	1
Part I. Choices, Bosoms, and Dampers	11
② The Women of David Copperfield : The Choice of an Undisciplined Heart	13
3. Barnaby Rudge 's Mrs. Varden: The Buxom	33
4. The Spinster of Barnaby Rudge : "Born to Be a Damper"	45
Part II. Little Women, She-Dragons, and Misfits	65
5. The Women inside the Fold: Dickens' Little Women	67
6. The Women outside the Fold: Dickens' She-Dragons	83
7. The Women Who Don't Fit into the Fold: Dickens' Misfits	95

Part III. Brass, a Ring and a Handkerchief, and a Woman's Story	111
8. The True Heroine of Oliver Twist : "Brass Can Do Better Than Gold"	113
9. The Passionate and the Contained Women of Oliver Twist : A Ring and a Handkerchief	127
10. The "Pattern" of Bleak House : A Woman's Story	141
Part IV. "The Bearings of This Observation Lay in the Application of It" (Captain Bunsby); or, Reference Aids	157
Bibliographical Essay: The Archive of Criticism on Dickens' Women	159
Bibliography	169
Index of Dickens' Characters	179
General Index	183