

---

Contents

PART ONE: LOOKING BACK, 1800-1906	i
Chapter One: Famine	3
Chapter Two: Disturbance	15
Chapter Three: The Troubling of the Waters	28
PART TWO: IRISH LEADERS AND ENGLISH PARTIES, 1906-1914	45
Chapter Four: The Liberals — David Lloyd George	47
Chapter Five: The Liberals — Birrell, Asquith and Home Rule	56
Chapter Six: The Orange Drum — 1911-1912	66
Chapter Seven: The New Style — 1912-1914	75
PART THREE: THE EASTER RISING, 1914-1916	91
Chapter Eight: Dublin: November 1913-March 1914	93
Chapter Nine: Belfast and Dublin: March-August 1914	110
Chapter Ten: Mr. Redmond's Rubicon: August and September 1914	124
Chapter Eleven: The Military Council: September 1914-August 1915	130
Chapter Twelve: Dublin, New York, Berlin: May 1915-March 1916	148
Chapter Thirteen: To the General Post Office: 9 April-24 April 1916	165

---

Chapter Fourteen: The Rising: 24 April–30 April 1916	186
Chapter Fifteen: Terrible Beauty: 1 May–12 May 1916	207
PART FOUR: SECESSION, MAY 1916–JANUARY 1919	221
Chapter Sixteen: Lloyd George Negotiates: 16 May–16 July 1916	223
Chapter Seventeen: The Rise of Sinn Fein: August 1916–November 1917	243
Chapter Eighteen: Conscription and Vindication: January 1918–1919	264
PART FIVE: THE UNFINISHED REVOLUTION — FEBRUARY 1919–DECEMBER 1921	305
References	353
Bibliography	371
Index	377