

Contents

Prologue

WHAT IS THE HOLOCAUST? 3

What Is Meant by the Holocaust? 4

How Has the Holocaust Been Interpreted? 7

How Shall We Interpret the Holocaust? 9

What Can Be Done? 15

PART ONE: EARLY HISTORICAL ROOTS

Chapter 1

THE JEW AS OUTSIDER:

THE GRECO-ROMAN AND EARLY CHRISTIAN WORLDS 23

Anti-Jewish Policies in the Greco-Roman World 27

The Birth of Christianity and the Beginning of the Jewish-Christian Schism 31

The Fall of Jerusalem and the Roots of the Holocaust 35

Chapter 2

THE TRIUMPH OF CHRISTIANITY AND THE "TEACHING OF CONTEMPT" 46

From the Church Fathers to the Reformation 46

Martin Luther, the Protestant Reformation, and the Enlightenment 52

Chapter 3

THE IRONY OF EMANCIPATION:

A FRENCH CONNECTION 66

The Rationalization of Politics 67

Opposition to Emancipation 69

Growing Resentment 73

The Jew as Judas 77

The Myth of Conspiracy 82

A National Obsession 84

Anticipations of Auschwitz 88

PART TWO: THE NAZIS IN POWER

A Chronology of Crucial Holocaust-Related Events 92

Chapter 4

TOWARD TOTAL DOMINATION 95

The Russian Solution to the Jewish Problem 95

Hitler, Germans, and the Jewish Question 97

The Twisted Road to Auschwitz 104

Rational and Irrational Antisemitism 108

The Last Year of Peace 114

“The Most Fantastic Association of Men Imaginable” 117

The Failure of Emigration 121

Chapter 5

WAR AND THE FINAL SOLUTION 126

Genocide in the Soviet Theater of Operations 127

Toward the Rationalization of Genocide 138

Efficient Death 144

Destination Auschwitz 152

The End of Killing 157

Chapter 6

VICTIMS AND SURVIVORS 159

An Impulse Toward Community 162

Dilemmas and Alternatives in the Ghettos 165

Fighting Resistance 173

The Chances of Survival 178

The Role of the Survivor 188

Remorse, Guilt, and the Victim as Nonperson 190

PART THREE: RESPONSES TO THE HOLOCAUST

Chapter 7

THEIR BROTHERS' KEEPERS?

CHRISTIANS, CHURCHES, AND JEWS 199

"You Can't Be Both" 201

Politics in the Vatican 211

The Boundaries of Obligation 216

The Avenue of the Righteous 223

Chapter 8

BUSINESS AS USUAL?

PROFESSIONS AND INDUSTRIES DURING THE HOLOCAUST 229

Ordinary Officials, Extraordinary Tasks 231

"The Problem . . . Can Now Be Regarded as Definitely Solved" 239

"I Have Lived Only for My Work" 243

No Sign of Remorse 246

Can Right Make Might? 250

Chapter 9

WHAT CAN—AND CANNOT—BE SAID?

LITERARY RESPONSES TO THE HOLOCAUST 254

Lamentation 257

Resistance 262

Endurance 266

Survival 270

Honesty 274

Choice-making 279

Protest 283

Chapter 10

THE SILENCE OF GOD:

PHILOSOPHICAL AND RELIGIOUS REFLECTION ON THE HOLOCAUST 290

The Religious Testimony of Survivors 292

A Christian Response 296

Covenant and Election 300

Mending the World 316

The Religious Future 329

PART FOUR: THE AFTERMATH AND THE FUTURE

Chapter 11

THE LEGACY OF THE HOLOCAUST 339

A Historical Crisis 340

International Dilemmas 347

Surplus People 351

Epilogue

SOME CONCLUDING REFLECTIONS ON A CENTURY OF PROGRESS 355

Notes 365

Selected Bibliography 389

Index of Names 407

Index of Subjects 412