

Contents

List of Tables and Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
A Note on Names and Dates	xiii
1. Introduction	1
The Comparative Approach	2
The Six City-States	4
The Testament	11
The Model from Siena	17
The Choice of Geography	19
The Localization of Culture and Its Convergence	23
Black Death Studies	25
PART I. The Structure of Piety	29
2. Pious Choices	31
Parishes and Monasteries	33
Nunneries	41
Hospitals	43
Hospital Foundations	57
Religious Confraternities	60
The "Poor of Christ," Dowries, and Servants	65
A General Assessment	67
3. The Structure of Pious Bequests	72
A Divergence in the Structure of Piety: Siena, Pisa, and Assisi	79
The Second Pattern	87
Wealth and Piety	90
A Mixture of Pious Intentions	101
Altarpieces	110
The Donoratico and the Tarlati	112
PART II. Directions from the Grave	119
4. The Body	121
Funerals	122

Burial	133
Change over Time	159
5. Property	162
Directions from the Grave	168
Women and Lineage	195
A General Assessment	201
PART III. Art	203
6. Art and Masses	205
Perpetual Masses	205
Chapels	211
Chapel Decoration	223
Other Construction Projects	227
Sacred Art	230
Chalices, Vestments, Altarcloths	233
Candlestick Holders	235
Painted Beds	236
Coats of Arms, Crests, and Plaques	237
Sculpture	238
Restoration and Repair	240
7. Paintings	244
The Geography of Painting	246
Before the Black Death	248
1348	252
After the Black Death	254
Painting in the Late Trecento and Early Quattrocento	261
The Price of Art	266
Painting after the Black Death: A Reassessment	271
8. Conclusion	281
Appendix A: The Sources	289
Appendix B: Catalog Numbers of the ASF, Notarile antecosimiano, Sampled for This Book	295
Appendix C: A Gazetteer of Villages and Provincial Towns Mentioned in the Text	299
Notes	307
Bibliography	381
Index	415