

Contents

|  |       |
|--|-------|
| Preface   | xī    |
| Author's note on terminology, transliteration, translation, and texts     | xv    |
| List of abbreviations   | xviii |
|    |       |
| Introduction   | I     |
|    |       |
| PART I: PRE-TRIAL PLAYS  |       |
| 1 The staging of dispute settlement  | 25    |
| 2 Initiating justice: threat, summons, and arrest                                | 68    |
|    |       |
| PART II: RECONCILIATION AND ITS RHETORIC   |       |
| 3 Arbitration and reconciliation in Athens and Rome                              | 117   |
| 4 Scenarios of arbitration and reconciliation in NewComedy                   | 154   |
| 5 Redress for sexual offenses in Athenian and Roman law                          | 193   |
| 6 The resolution of seduction and rape in New Comedy                             | 232   |
| 7 Arguing behind closed doors  | 279   |
|    |       |
| PART III: PLAYING ON THE BOUNDARIES OF THE LAW                                   |       |
| 8 Entrapment and framing   | 329   |
|    |       |
| APPENDICES   |       |
| 1 Official arbitration in the Attic orators                                      | 383   |
| 2 Private arbitrations and reconciliations in Athens                             | 393   |
| 3 Remedies for enslavement, kidnapping, and slave stealing inAthens and Rome | 400   |

|   |  |     |
|---|--|-----|
| 4 | Controversial summonses in Rudens and Persa                | 409 |
| 5 | Threats of lawsuits and self-help remedies in Graeco-RomanNew Comedy | 424 |
| 6 | Ambiguous arbitri in Roman Comedy                                 | 467 |
| 7 | Moikhos and moikheia                                       | 474 |
|   | Works cited   | 480 |
|   | General index   | 499 |
|   | Index locorum   | 506 |