

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Abbreviations	viii
Introduction	1
I. THE EYE: VISUAL CONCEPTS IN PILGRIMAGE	10
1. Pictures of the Journey: Impressions of Change	10
1.1 'On her Way to a Goal:' Pilgrimage as a Journey through Life	10
1.2 'Away from England-English People:' The Journey to Germany	18
1.3 'Onwards through this Gladness of Light:' The Journey to Oberland	23
1.4 'Into the Heart of Peace:' The Journey to Dimple Hill	35
1.5 'In True Perspective:' The Journeys Remembered	44
2. Garden Views and Visions: Reflections of the Self	50
2.1 'Trying to See into the Garden:' The Limited View	51
2.2 'Gardens Everywhere, Not Always Visible:' Impressions of Miriam's Wanderjahre	54
2.2.1 'Gazing Out of the Window:' The Walled Garden in Hanover	54
2.2.2 'The Shabby London Greenery:' The Gardens of North London	59
2.2.3 'Relief in the Depths of the Gardens:' Moments of Privacy at Newlands	62
2.3 'Echoes of the Tragedy:' The Long Shadows of Death	65
2.3.1 'Never Again in the Old Way:' Enigmatic Garden Views in Miriam's Early London Years	65
2.3.2 'All the World, Waiting in the Happy Garden:' New Perspectives in Hypo's Garden	70
2.3.3 'Escape from Lifelessness?' Breaking Free (from Men)	78
2.4 'Sunlit Endless Gardens:' Visions of Paradise	84
2.4.1 'The First Thing She Could Remember:' Miriam's Childhood Paradise	93
2.4.2 'At the Edge of the World:' On the Way to Paradise	100
2.4.3 'Piercing the Sky:' Trees of Paradise	105
2.4.4 'Perfection:' Paradise at Dimple Hill	112

II. THE EAR: AURAL CONCEPTS IN PILGRIMAGE	119
3. Sounds of Music: Patterns of Life	119
3.1 'Piling Joy on Joy:' The Sensual Beauty of Musical Sounds	123
3.2 'A Pattern Woven Continuously:' Musical Form in Pilgrimage	135
3.2.1 'With Perfect Freshness:' Past into Present through Repetition	138
3.2.2 Revolving Lights : Dorothy Richardson's 7 th Symphony	142
3.3 'A Rapturous Message:' The Meaning of Music	151
3.4 The 'Silent Significance:' Miriam and the Myth of Man's Redemption	156
3.4.1 Prelude: Gounod's Faust	156
3.4.2 Theme: Wagner's Der Fliegende Holländer	159
3.4.3 Variations: Miriam's Other Dutchmen	162
4. Silence: In Quest of Truth	173
4.1 'The Quiet Sense of Life at First Hand:' The Silence of Solitude	177
4.2 'The Medium of Temporary Unity:' Silence in Community	188
4.3 'My Clue to the Nature of Reality:' The Case of Jean	193
4.4 'Solitary yet not Alone:' The Quakers' Silence between Society and Solitude	197
III. THE EYE AND THE EAR: THE CONCEPT OF UNITY	212
5. A Union of the Senses? Perceptions of Unity	212
5.1 'Always Watching and Listening and Feeling:' Polysensory Perception	212
5.2 'Sound Made Visible:' Aspects of Synaesthesia	221
Conclusion	229
Bibliography	239
Index	255