

CONTENTS

| | |
|--|-----|
| Preface | vii |
| Introduction | 1 |
| I. Being | 33 |
| II. The Properties of Being, I. A History of the Transcendental Concepts to Aquinas | 50 |
| III. The Properties of Being, II. The Theory of the Transcendental Concepts from Scotus to Sartre | 63 |
| IV. Being has a Content | 78 |
| V. The Unity of Being. Being as Some One Thing | 83 |
| VI. The Truth of Being | 95 |
| VII. The Goodness of Being | 112 |
| VIII. Evil | 124 |
| IX. Being is Beautiful | 136 |
| X. The Principle of Contradiction: Being is not Not-Being .. | 145 |
| XI. Being in Act, Being in Potency | 158 |
| XII. The Real Distinction between Essence and Being | 170 |
| XIII. Being (Esse) | 190 |
| XIV. Essence | 207 |
| XV. Participation | 218 |
| XVI. The Order of Things | 231 |
| XVII. Substance, the Primary and Basic Instance of Being | 239 |
| XVIII. Accidental Being | 255 |
| XIX. Causality | 269 |
| XX. The Four Genera of Causality | 291 |
| | |
| Index of Names | 309 |
| Index of Subjects | 314 |