

Contents

Foreword to the English Edition vii

Foreword ix

Preface xi

Translator's Note xiii

First Conversation

What Is Psychology? (May–June 1969) 1

Second Conversation

Insights and Illusions of Philosophy 11

Third Conversation

The Child as Model of Developing
Intelligence 17

Fourth Conversation

Experiments with Children. The Discovery of Developmental Stages 23

Fifth Conversation

Structures. Their Mechanisms.
Assimilation and Accommodation 36

Sixth Conversation

Knowledge and Affectivity 49

- Seventh Conversation, Part 1*
Causality, or How Do We Interpret the Phenomena of the World? 55
- Seventh Conversation, Part 2*
The Boss and the Team (Three Conversations at the International Center for Genetic Epistemology) 66
- Eighth Conversation*
Taking Consciousness (La Prise de conscience)
(1975–76) 84
- Ninth Conversation*
Games for Children and Scholars: Toward a Comparative History of Individual Intelligence and Scientific Progress 91
- Tenth Conversation*
The Phenocopy 110
- Eleventh Conversation*
Memory: The Kidnapping of Jean Piaget 118
- Twelfth Conversation*
Concerning Creativity:
The Three Methods 126
- Thirteenth Conversation*
The Students, The University.
Basic and Applied Research 133
- Fourteenth Conversation*
New Possibilities (June 1976) 136
- Epilogue 145