

Contents

Faith or Fiction? Introduction (Benjamin Biebuyck)	7
SECTION I: An Analytic Approach — Speaking about Religious Metaphors	15
The Meaning of Jesus' Parables. A Semantic Approach to the Gospels (Anna Wierzbicka)	17
The Love Frame in the Bible. A Cognitive Linguistic Analysis (Willem J. Botha)	56
Upside-down Metaphors of 'Father'. The Case of Hungarian Oaths and Investive Formulas (Tamás Szende)	84
SECTION II: An Integrative Approach — Speaking through Religious Metaphors	97
The Use of Metaphors in Islamic Education (Mualla Selçuk)	99
Two Faces of Religious Metaphor. Investigating the Problematic Dialogue between Religious Studies and Theology (Lieve Orye)	115
SECTION III: A Dialogical Approach — Speaking with Religious Metaphors	135
Metaphor and the Ancient Trinitarian Debate. Analogical Language in the Theological Orations of Gregory Nazianzen (Kristoffel Demoen)	137
Faith Seeking Words. Metaphor and Kierkegaard's Silentio (John Ries)	154
Nietzsche's Curse on Christianity. Explorations of the Power of Creative Metaphor (Benjamin Biebuyck)	190
SECTION IV: A Formal Approach — Speaking in Religious Metaphors	219
The Pregnancy of Metaphor. Multi-layered Figuration in John Donne's Batter my Heart (Purificación Ribes)	221
And the Analogy was to God. Propositional Meaning and Linguistic Form in Gerard Manley Hopkins's The Windhover (Peter Grundy)	240