

Contents

|                 |     |
|-----------------|-----|
| List of Maps    | ix  |
| Abbreviations   | xi  |
| Acknowledgments | xv  |
| Introduction    | xix |

One Pax Italiae 1

|                                       |    |
|---------------------------------------|----|
| The Transformation of Byzantine Italy | 2  |
| The Place of the Roman Church         | 9  |
| The Sixth Ecumenical Council          | 12 |

Two St. Peter's Peculiar People 15

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Peace Betrayed: Byzantines                       | 15 |
| Peace Betrayed: Lombards                         | 23 |
| Twin Challenges: Iconoclasm and Lombards         | 28 |
| New Lombard Threats and Shifting Papal Diplomacy | 40 |
| The Birth of a Papal Republic                    | 57 |

Three St. Peter's Strong Right Arm 61

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Boniface, the Popes, and the Franks                | 61 |
| Politics in Francia: A New Dynasty                 | 65 |
| The Italian Crisis and the Franco-Papal Alliance   | 71 |
| Sanctae Dei Ecclesiae Reipublicae Romanorum | 94 |
| Unanswered Questions                               | 98 |

Four Our Beloved Son Desiderius . . . That

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Foul and Pestiferous Lombard            | 99  |
| New Rulers, New Opportunities, Old Antagonisms | 99  |
| A Crisis Inside the Republic                   | 112 |
| Hadrian and His Republic in 774                | 132 |

|       |   |     |
|-------|---|-----|
| Five  | Multis Documentis: Hadrian, Charlemagne, and the Republic of St. Peter | 138 |
|       | A Time of Uncertainty   | 138 |
|       | Problems with the Sources   | 148 |
|       | The Territorial Settlements of 781  | 153 |
|       | The Territorial Settlements of 787–88   | 175 |
|       | The Frontiers of the Republic   | 181 |
| Six   | The Governors of the Republic  | 184 |
|       | Papal Profiles  | 185 |
|       | Papal Elections and Republican Politics                                       | 188 |
|       | Reflections on the Papal Office   | 205 |
|       | The Papacy Within the Republic  | 209 |
| Seven | The Governance of the Republic   | 212 |
|       | Sancta Romana Ecclesia and the Lateran Administration                         | 212 |
|       | Secular Administration  | 230 |
|       | Administration Outside Rome   | 241 |
|       | The Papal Government  | 253 |
| Eight | Amicitia, Pax et Caritas: The Franco-Papal Alliance                    | 256 |
|       | A Historiographical Orientation   | 257 |
|       | The Amicitia Alliance  | 262 |
|       | The Terms of the Alliance   | 270 |
|       | The Duration of the Alliance  | 273 |
|       | The Place of the Alliance in the History of the Republic                      | 275 |
| Nine  | The Republic and the Franks  | 277 |
|       | The Franks in the Republic Before 800   | 278 |
|       | The Imperial Coronation of Charlemagne  | 291 |
|       | The Republic and Louis the Pious: The Ludovicianum                     | 299 |
|       | The Republic and Louis the Pious: The Constitutio Romana               | 308 |
|       | Friendship, Protection, Administration  | 322 |
|       | Symbol and Reality in the Lateran Mosaics                                     | 323 |
|       | Conclusion  | 325 |
|       | Bibliography  | 337 |
|       | Index   | 365 |