

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
Part I. Aristophanes' Laughter (The Clouds)	7
Introduction	7
Strepsiades' Problem	8
Strepsiades' Introduction to the Thinkery	10
The Parabasis : The Clouds' Address to the Audience	15
Socrates' Instruction of Strepsiades	18
The Contest Presented before Phidippides	19
Its Aftermath	22
The Standpoint of Comedy	25
Part II. Political Philosophy: Plato's Response (The Republic)	29
Introduction	29
Chapter 1. Plato's Introduction to Political Philosophy (Book I of the Republic)	35
Introduction	35
The Setting of the Dialogue	37
Socrates' Meeting with Cephalus	40
Socrates' and Polemarchus' Search for a Definition of Justice	43

Socrates' Quarrel with Thrasymachus	48
The Task of Political Philosophy	53
Chapter 2. Justice in the City and the Soul (Books II–IV of the Republic)	57
Introduction	57
Glaucon and Adeimantus	59
The City of Pigs and Its Deficiencies	66
The Nature of the Guardians	69
The Guardians' Education in Music: The Public Tales	73
The Guardians' Education in Music: Further Considerations	78
The Gymnastic Education of the Guardians	81
The Unity of the City: Its Noble Lie and Communism of Property	84
Locating Justice in the City	88
Drawing a Parallel to the Soul	91
The Republic's Defense of Justice and Aristophanes' Clouds	95
Chapter 3. Communism and Philosophy (Books V–VII of the Republic)	99
Introduction	99
Socrates' Reluctance to Speak	101
Common Natures, Common Jobs	103
Communism of Women and Children	106
The Philosopher-Kings	109
The Dangers of Politics	122
Chapter 4. A Return to the Socratic Perspective (Books VIII–X of the Republic)	125
Introduction	125
The Degeneration of Regimes and Human Beings	127
The Contest between Justice and Injustice	133
Socrates' New Criticism of Poetry	138
Poetry and the Reconciliation of the Republic's Dichotomies	143
The Unresolved Quarrel between Aristophanes and Plato	147

Part III. Political Science: Aristotle's Achievement (Book II of the Politics)	153
Introduction	153
Aristotle's Criticism of Socrates and Plato	156
The Other Regimes in Speech	164
The Regimes in Deed	169
The List of Legislators	172
Aristotle's Political Science as a Response to Plato	175
Afterword. Ancients and Moderns: Another Debate	181
Notes	189
Selected Bibliography	231
Index	233