

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Preface                                  | ix  |
| Chapter I 1872–1898 Towards Truth and Relations | 1   |
| Section 1 Family Background                     | 1   |
| Section 2 The Foundations of Geometry           | 6   |
| Section 3 Leibniz                               | 35  |
| Synopsis  | 49  |
| Chapter II 1896–1902 The Problems Arise         | 53  |
| Section 1 The Logic of Relations                | 53  |
| Section 2 The Discovery of Contradictions       | 79  |
| Section 3 The Principles of Mathematics         | 90  |
| Synopsis  | 103 |
| Chapter III 1901–1910 A Solution Suggested      | 105 |
| Section 1 On Denoting                           | 105 |
| Section 2 The Theory of Types                   | 140 |
| Synopsis  | 161 |
| Chapter IV 1911–1927 The Solution Completed     | 165 |
| Section 1 Principia Mathematica          | 165 |
| Section 2 The Second Edition                    | 198 |
| Section 3 Wittgenstein                          | 207 |
| Synopsis  | 223 |
| Chapter V 1914–1970 Contemporaries              | 227 |
| Section 1 Russell’s Later Work                  | 227 |
| Section 2 The Philosophy of Mathematics         | 233 |
| Section 3 Russell’s Influence                   | 242 |
| Glossary of symbols                      | 247 |
| Index                                    | 249 |