Acknowledgements

My special thanks to Professor Dr. Otto Pöggeler, to whom I am deeply indebted, and to his colleagues at the Hegel-Archiv, Bochum, for their help and encouragement. Without the facilities of the Hegel-Archiv, I should not have been able to write this book or do the necessary research. Grateful thanks are also due to Professor Dr. Bernhard Waldenfels who was ever willing to impart to me his extensive knowledge of the phenomenological movement in France. Lastly, my thanks to the Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst for its financial support.
