

CONTENTS

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	ix
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	xi
PROLOGUE	xvi

Jennifer Jenkins and Lucilla Lopriore

Introduction	1
Yasemin Bayyurt

PART ONE GENERAL PRINCIPLES

1 Incorporating Ontological Reflection into Teacher Education about English for Global Learners: A Rationale and Some Guiding Principles	11
Christopher J. Hall
2 Language Development in the Global Englishes Classroom: A Role for SLA Theoretical Inquiry	27
Dustin Crowther
3 Moving from Conceptualizations to Implementation of a Global Englishes Perspective in ELT: Critical issues in pedagogy	42
Seran Doğançay-Aktuna and Joel Hardman
4 World Englishes, English as a Lingua Franca and ELT Materials: A Critical Perspective	59
Paola Vettorel
5 Materials and Activities in Teaching English as a Global Language: Using Online Resources to Stimulate Innovation	75
Mona Syrbe and Heath Rose

PART TWO NATIVE-SPEAKERISM

6 Negotiating Native-Speakerism in TESOL Curriculum Innovation	93
Nicola Galloway
7 Beyond 'Native' and 'Non-Native' English-Speaking Teachers: Teacher Identity and the Knowledge Base of Global Englishes Language Teachers	107
Ali Fuad Selvi and Bedrettin Yazan

8	Reconceptualizing “(Non-)Native English Speakers” within the Paradigm of Teaching English as an International Language Aya Matsuda	126
9	Tackling Native-Speakerism through ELF-Aware Pedagogy Robert J. Lowe and Marek Kiczkowski	143
PART THREE ENGLISH AS A MEDIUM OF INSTRUCTION
10	Teaching WE and ELF in EMI from an ELF Perspective: A Case Study at a University in the Expanding Circle Kumiko Murata	159
11	Implementing a Critical Pedagogy of Global Englishes in ELT from the Lens of EMI and Intercultural Citizenship Fan Fang and Will Baker	177
12	Problematizing EMI Programs in Turkish Higher Education: Voices from Stakeholders Dilek Inal, Yasemin Bayyurt and Feza Kerestecioğlu	192
13	A Critical View of Globalization within the Expanded Role of EMI in Japan: Case Study of an Actual Implementation James F. D’Angelo	208
PART FOUR FOCUS ON SPECIFIC CONTEXTS
14	The Impact of World Englishes and English as a Lingua Franca in Tertiary Education in the Expanding Circle Enric Llurda and Guzman Mancho-Barés	225
15	World Englishes and Critical Pedagogy: Reflections on Paulo Freire’s Contributions to the Brazilian National English as a Lingua Franca Curriculum Sávio Siqueira and Telma Gimenez	241
16	Teaching English from a Critical Intercultural Perspective: An experience with Afro-Colombian and Indigenous Students Claudia Gutiérrez, Janeth Ortiz, and Jaime Usma	257
17	English-Medium Instruction and Heritage Language Development in Africa Nkonko M. Kamwangamalu	275
	Index	287