

CONTENTS

| | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 1. | Promising in Law and Morals | 1 |
| 2. | Promising and Natural Law | 9 |
| 3. | Promising and Utilitarianism | 29 |
| | A Utilitarian Account of Promising | 30 |
| | The Strength of the Utilitarian Case | 45 |
| | The Case Against the Utilitarian Account of Promising | 48 |
| | Promises and Rule Utilitarianism | 79 |
| 4. | Promising and Non-Utilitarian Philosophies | 87 |
| | Intuitionism | 87 |
| | Subjectivism | 93 |
| | Performatives and Promises | 99 |
| | Promising as a Practice | 106 |
| 5. | The Social Context of Promising | 123 |
| 6. | The Practice of Promising | 138 |
| | The Strength of the Promise-Keeping Principle | 138 |
| | Justifications for Promise-Breaking | 142 |
| | Why are Promises Made and Kept, or Broken? | 143 |
| | The Intentions of the Promisor | 146 |
| | Who Makes Promises, to Whom, and Who is Bound by Them? | 151 |
| | The Content of a Promise | 154 |
| | How Promises are Made | 169 |
| 7. | Promises and Other Sources of Obligation | 177 |
| | Promises as Consent | 177 |
| | Promises as Admissions | 184 |
| | Mutual Executory Promises | 202 |
| | Unilateral Gratuitous Promises | 212 |
| | Index | 216 |